“As a coach and educator, I like Big Questions because it allows students to discuss big philosophical ideas in a format that all levels of students can attempt. In a time where teachers are constantly told to increase the rigor and broaden the curriculum, this style of debate offers debaters and teachers an opportunity to do both.”

BIG QUESTIONS PARTICIPANT GRANTS

Tournament directors, thanks for providing a Big Questions opportunity for your local schools! If any schools attending your tournament haven't been NSDA members in the last two years (18-19 or 19-20), please let them know about this opportunity for an NSDA membership grant:

The John Templeton Foundation has allocated funding specifically for schools new to the NSDA that are willing to try Big Questions Debate. After your event, any participating school which was not an NSDA member in 2018-2019 or 2019-2020 can submit a results packet or a link to their school's Tabroom.com Big Questions entry to info@speechanddebate.org to receive a free school membership for the remainder of the 2019-2020 school year.

This opportunity is open to the first 50 schools which apply and meet the criteria, up to 4 per Big Questions tournament.

JOHN TEMPLETON
FOUNDATION

Big Questions is presented by the NSDA through a generous grant provided by the John Templeton Foundation.
