IN APPRECIATION!

Thank you for signing up to play an active role in National Speech and Debate Education Day 2020. March 6 is a special day for all of us in the speech and debate community. It's a day dedicated to celebrating speech and debate educators, inspiring students, and transforming the leaders of tomorrow. We can't wait to celebrate with you on March 6!

How you celebrate National Speech and Debate Education Day is entirely up to you, but as a part of signing up to participate, we'll share some ideas for you to celebrate and promote the day. In this packet, you'll find a number of resources to help you plan an incredible celebration, like:

NATIONAL
SPEECH AND DEBATE
EDUCATION DAY

CELEBRATING EDUCATORS. INSPIRING STUDENTS
TRANSFORMING TOMORROW.

- A timeline to help guide your planning process
- Ideas for ways you can celebrate in your classroom or at a tournament
- Posters, social media graphics, and other materials you can use to raise awareness about the day
- Speech and debate stickers to share with your students and community members.
- Resources to promote National Speech and Debate Education Day outside the walls of your classroom

We have even more materials available online to download for free at www.SpeechAndDebateDay.org. You can access editable press releases and letter templates, as well as guides to starting a social media account for your team or pitching a story to your local media outlets. Or, find more posters and graphics to download and print!

While you plan for National Speech and Debate Education Day at your school, our team is busy working to get a bipartisan national proclamation passed for March 6, 2020.

Thank you for participating in speech and debate. We know how this activity can change lives. We are thrilled to have a day dedicated to celebrating you, your team, and all you put into speech and debate. We can't wait to hear your voice celebrating on March 6, 2020!

Sincerely,

J. Scott Wunn

PREP TIMELINE

We have outlined some suggested steps below which will assist you in the development of your participation plans for National Speech and Debate Education (NSDE) Day. Get others involved now so that you can make plans for a great celebration!

JANUARY / EARLY FEBRUARY

START PLANNING

Now is the time to start brainstorming how you want to celebrate and promote NSDE Day.

IDEAS FOR PLANNING:

- Choose an NSDE Day Captain or Planning Committee.
- Discuss ideas for celebrating and promoting NSDE Day at your school. See the next page of this toolkit for ideas!
- Review NSDE Day materials at www.SpeechAndDebateDay.org to determine what additional resources will be necessary for your celebration.

COORDINATE PLANS

Determine how you are going to promote and celebrate NSDE Day.

IDEAS FOR PLANNING:

- Find out when the next School Board/ City Council meeting is being held so you can propose a resolution. You can use the template on www.SpeechAndDebateDay.org or write your own!
- Plan to hold an event at your school.
- Set fundraising goals.
- Order merchandise from the Speech and Debate Store at www.speechanddebate.org/store
- Find ways to make an announcement in school publications, announcements, websites, and other sources!

MID-FEBRUARY

FINALIZE DETAILS

NSDE Day is right around the corner! Use the last few weeks of the month to finalize details.

IDEAS TO PROMOTE:

- Write articles for local and school publications emphasizing the importance of speech and debate.
- Write thank you letters to educators, coaches, administrators, and other speech and debate supporters.
- Customize the Press Release template available online to send to your local media outlets.
- Plan to use NSDE Day posters, graphics, and other materials around your school.

MARCH 6

CELEBRATE!!

Use your voice to celebrate speech and debate at your school and across your community.
