

2023-2024 — PRINT AND DIGITAL — ADVERTISING AND PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Effective 10/26/2023

Advertising Tips

The overall effect that you would like to create for your print ad is one that provides all the useful information but also helps readers see themselves as satisfied customers. That's a better state of mind for buying your products and services!

MAKE SURE YOUR HEADLINE HAS STOPPING POWER.

Create an attention-grabbing headline. It's that simple. Intrigue them and focus on what you want them to do after reading your advertisement.

YOUR ADVERTISEMENT SHOULD NOT BE JUST ABOUT YOU.

Talk to your customers about what matters in their lives and their needs. Not you. So don't waste valuable ad space talking about you. Help them understand how or why you can help them.

FOCUS ON ONE MESSAGE.

Stay focused on your main point and don't take the readers off on a bunch of tangents. Don't overload the ad with every benefit and feature of your offering.

MAKE SURE YOU HAVE A CALL TO ACTION.

Give the buyer a sense of urgency. Go ahead and tell them how to get what you're offering and tell them to get it NOW. Visit your website, download your free sample, use your discount code. Give them an easy way to reach out. Give them a reason to do it now, rather than a few weeks from now.

SAY IT VISUALLY.

The visual you select for your ad is critical. It should reinforce your story and be sized appropriately to be seen without effort. Ask yourself, "What visual would communicate the message but also surprise the reader?" That's a winner.

BE CONSISTENT WITH YOUR BRAND.

Use fonts and colors people already identify with your brand. Maintain consistency in your ads' appearance so readers will recognize your ads before reading them.

WHITE SPACE IS YOUR FRIEND.

Focus the reader's attention on the ad, emphasizing the headline and graphic. Crowded ads lose their desired impact and blend into the page. Use a bullet-point list, which makes the ad easy to read.

DON'T SAY TOO MUCH-BE SHORT AND SWEET.

After crafting your headline, write potential copy you want to include in your ad. Now cut it in half. It's a painful process but it forces you to really think through your message. After you cut it in half, cut it again by a third so it's boiled down to the core message. Stick to one key message.

Rostrum

Rostrum is the official magazine of the National Speech & Debate Association. This quarterly magazine provides the speech and debate community with news, scholarly articles, and national updates. As a dedicated publication for the speech and debate community, it is the source for professionals to learn and innovate in their careers and for students to get introduced and thrive in the speech and debate community.

Covers are sold on a first come, first served basis and may be subject to availability. We attempt to place every ad in an attractive, viable position.

FORMAT

PDF is the preferred format for Rostrum ad submissions. Please ensure that all fonts and high-resolution (300 dpi) logos and graphics are embedded. (Note: It may be helpful to send the original ad setup along with the PDF.) Please email your ad along with any instructions to advertising@speechanddebate.org.

BLEED VS. TRIM AREA

An ad with Bleed means that, instead of having a "blank" white margin around the outside of an ad, the ad will print all the way to the edge of the paper (it will "bleed off the page"). Bleed is achieved by extending the artwork or design on a larger sheet of paper, which is then cut down to the final size, or trim area.

The Trim Area of Rostrum is 8.375" wide by 10.875" tall. The bleed area of an additional 0.25" all the way around. Due to the nature of the trimming process, we require a 0.375" text margin within the trim area of ads with bleed. For example, you would not want a crucial phone number, website address, or other text to be cut off near the edge of your ad.

REMINDER: DON'T FORGET TO PROOFREAD!

For example, "Lincoln-Douglas" should be hyphenated, but "LD" should not. "Student Congress" is now called "Congressional Debate."

DESIGN FEE INFORMATION

Copy and images to be provided by the advertiser. Purchase of stock photography or illustrations are not included in ad fee. Photo editing or special effects may incur an additional fee.

Electronic Newsletters

Each month, the National Speech & Debate Association sends emails to thousands of coaches and students. These newsletters allow for a banner ad from an advertiser. The ad will be a banner design with a clickable link to your URL.
