

DISTRICT STUDENT OF THE YEAR AWARD SAMPLE SCRIPT

PRESENTER: The District Student of the Year award is presented to a graduating senior in each National Speech & Debate Association district throughout the country who best represents the tenets of the Association’s Code of Honor: integrity, respect, humility, leadership, and service.

- Integrity: An honor society member obeys the highest ethical standards and adheres to the rules of the organization. Members recognize that integrity is central to earning the trust, respect, and support of one’s peers. Integrity encompasses the highest regard for honesty, civility, justice, and fairness.
- Humility: A member does not regard oneself more highly than others. Regardless of a person’s level of success, an individual always looks beyond oneself to appreciate the inherent value of others.
- Respect: A member respects individual differences and fosters diversity. They promote tolerance, inclusion, and empowerment for people from a variety of backgrounds, including race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, and ability.
- Leadership: A member influences others to take positive action toward productive change. Members commit to thoughtful and responsible leadership that promotes the other core values in the Code of Honor.
- Service: A member exercises their talents to provide service to peers, community, and the activity. At all times a member is prepared to work constructively to improve the lives of others.

Nominees must also demonstrate strong academic credentials and a commitment to the speech and debate community. This year, we had a number of nominations for the [DISTRICT NAME] Student of the Year. Please welcome to the stage our nominees, in alphabetical order:

Congratulations to all our finalists! Each district winner is entered into the running for the William Woods Tate, Jr., National Student of the Year award. Six finalists will interview with an esteemed panel of educators during the National Speech & Debate Tournament and the winner is announced during the National Awards Assembly. This individual serves as the student face of the National Speech & Debate Association for the following school year.

And this year’s [DISTRICT NAME] Student of the Year, representing our district in the running for the National Student of the Year Award is.... [RECIPIENT NAME].
