

NATIONAL SPEECH & DEBATE HONOR SOCIETY

Being part of the Honor Society helped me understand the importance of integrity, humility, respect, leadership, and service—not only in the speech and debate community but in my hometown community, as well. We are the future, and we have a say in changing the world for the better, which is exactly what I plan to do.”

— Abigail Onwunali,
2014 Dramatic Interpretation National Champion

NATIONAL RECOGNITION FOR LOCAL PARTICIPATION!

The National Speech & Debate Association's Honor Society has been recognizing student and coach achievements in speech and debate since 1925! Over the last 90 years, the Association has honored more than 1.5 million students, encouraging them to further their education, expand their skill set, and reach their goals.

PARTICIPATION IN THE HONOR SOCIETY:

- Helps establish speech and/or debate programs at your school.
- Attracts support from administrators.
- Recognizes student participation in speech and debate.
- Sparks student achievement.
- Benefits the college application process.

Recognizing our students for participating in speech and debate activities shows our school administration that we work extremely hard. They can easily see how dedicated our students are to success. In turn, administrators inquire about tournaments, attend events, and find ways to help us succeed. I can't thank the Association enough for inspiring and unifying my students and community.”

— Ariana Gonzalez-Green,
coach and teacher

SCHOOL RECOGNITION

The National Speech & Debate Association highlights the academic value of speech and debate activities at your school. Schools are awarded for their commitment to speech and debate activities and the learning opportunities they provide to their students. National Tournament recognition also helps increase local administrative support for your speech and debate program.

Participation in the largest national honorary for speech and debate will increase student engagement and college preparedness, strengthen your school's reputation, and build stronger connections within your community.

Speech and debate participants do better academically across the board. They become engaged, active participants in their education and in their community. Our school has seen great improvements in student culture and spirit since we started our program, and I would highly recommend joining the NSDA to any administrator looking to make a positive impact on school culture and academic performance.”

— Errol A. Evans,
2018 NSDA Middle School Administrator of the Year

EXAMPLES OF SCHOOL RECOGNITION:

- Schools of Outstanding Distinction
- Speech and Debate Schools of Excellence
- Outstanding School Achievement
- Administrator of the Year Award

STUDENT RECOGNITION

The National Speech & Debate Association recognizes middle and high school students for their participation in speech and debate activities. Students earn distinction through competition, community service, public speaking, and leadership. High school students must earn 25 points (Degree of Merit) to acquire lifetime membership in the Honor Society. The more points you earn, the more degrees you obtain.

Earning points in the Honor Society empowers students to expand their knowledge, advance their skill set, and become better students. The skills learned in speech and debate greatly benefit students in the college application process and prepare them for life after high school.

How to Earn Points:

|--|----------|
| Winning a round of Policy Debate | 6 points |
| Giving a speech to more than 25 people | 5 points |
| Acting in a high school play | 5 points |

EXAMPLES OF STUDENT RECOGNITION:

- Academic All American Award
- All American Award
- Student of the Year Award
- Exemplary Student Service Award
- Graduation Honor Cords

The National Speech & Debate Association Honor Society gave me a chance to be a part of a community of like-minded people who were driven to make a difference in the world.”

— Elena Cecil, 2018 NSDA Student of the Year

The National Speech & Debate Association's Honor Society gives students an avenue for visible achievement. Students are motivated to earn points through competition and service. Additionally, administrators are impressed with the awards individual students and the school achieve as part of the Honor Society. National recognition of speech and debate programs honors schools' achievements!”

—Joni Anker, 2018 NSDA Coach of the Year

COACH RECOGNITION

The National Speech & Debate Association recognizes more than 5,000 coaches for their dedication to speech and debate every year. Coaches earn distinction through team participation, student achievement, public service, and leadership work.

The Honor Society also provides professional development opportunities for coaches. Through the Association's professional development accreditation program, coaches can earn higher distinction within the honorary for expanding their skill set.

EXAMPLES OF COACH RECOGNITION:

- Coach of the Year Award
- Educator of the Year Award
- Diamond Awards
- Distinguished Service Award
- National Hall of Fame

CELEBRATE SUCCESS!

CODE OF HONOR

All members of the Honor Society pledge to uphold our Code of Honor.

INTEGRITY: An honor society member obeys the highest ethical standards and adheres to the rules of the organization. Members recognize that integrity is central to earning the trust, respect, and support of one's peers. Integrity encompasses the highest regard for honesty, civility, justice, and fairness.

HUMILITY: A member does not regard oneself more highly than others. Regardless of a person's level of success, an individual always looks beyond oneself to appreciate the inherent value of others.

RESPECT: A member respects individual differences and fosters diversity. They promote tolerance, inclusion, and empowerment for people from a variety of backgrounds, including race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, and ability.

LEADERSHIP: A member influences others to take positive action toward productive change. Members commit to thoughtful and responsible leadership that promotes the other core values in the Code of Honor.

SERVICE: A member exercises their talents to provide service to peers, community, and the activity. At all times a member is prepared to work constructively to improve the lives of others.

HOST AN HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION CEREMONY!

There are many ways to celebrate the success of your program. Hosting an Honor Society Induction Ceremony at your school is a great way to recognize your students, coaches, volunteers, community members, and administration! The Association provides free certificates, a guide for hosting a ceremony (including scripts), press releases, invitation templates, and more! As a member, you also have exclusive access to our trophy shop with specialized speech and debate awards and honor cords!
