J. Scott Wunn

Dear NFL,

I would like to personally thank the students and coaches of the great state of Utah for their incredible efforts in hosting the 2004 National Speech Tournament. The host committee of coaches, parents, students, and administrators welcomed the NFL with open arms and incredible hospitality.

From the Editor

David S. Smith, Beehive Nationals Host; J. Scott Wunn, National Executive Secretary and Frank Langheinrich, Beehive Nationals Host

A special congratulations and thank you must go out to Frank Langheinrich and David Smith, cohosts of the Beehive Nationals, for the endless time and effort they volunteered to the NFL. Their organization and preparation allowed our members to enjoy the type of nationals that all students and coaches desire.

Thank you to the teachers and administrators at East High School, Highland High School, Judge Memorial High School, The McGillis School, and Rowland Hall-St. Marks High School for allowing the NFL to visit your schools and enjoy the outstanding facilities that you have to offer.

The positive response from this year's national tournament has been overwhelming, and it was the commitment of our hosts that made it all possible. On behalf of the National Forensic League, please know how grateful we are that the Utah speech and debate community is so dedicated in its vision for the NFL.

Thank you,

J Scott Wumm

Lincoln
Financial Group®Keeping cool
My First National Forensic League Experience
By: Kara Sax, Marketing Specialist, Lincoln Financial Group

As my plane took off for Salt Lake City in mid-June, never did I imagine the experience that awaited me. As a fairly new employee at Lincoln Financial Group, it's been exciting to learn about our company's many sponsorship initiatives. One especially close to my heart is our involvement in the National Forensics League, or, as I call it, the "other" NFL.

This NFL boasts 100,000 hard-working high-school students who compete in speech tournaments.

Many devote hundreds of hours to research and practice before they even "stand and deliver." The week-long event in Salt Lake City featured 2,800 of the best-of-the-best at the NFL National Tournament.

My involvement with the NFL started a few months before, "Kara," my boss asked, "How would you like to represent Lincoln at a couple of LFG 'Refreshers'?" "Of course," I responded eagerly, partially because my boss was asking, and partially because I would be dealing with high school students. Being five years removed from high school, I had to make sure I was still "cool."

My first Refresher – an LFG Refresher is a hospitality event held at various district tournaments – was at Plymouth HS in Plymouth Indiana. It was a great day! I met energetic, intelligent teens, became acquainted with the NFL and, to my satisfaction, had my "cool ticket" punched.

A few weeks later, I learned I would represent Lincoln at Nationals in Salt Lake City. If that sounds like a leisurely PR excursion, forget it. It was a full-time job – and then some! The days began at 7a.m. and often stretched to 1a.m. There was perpetual excitement and tension as students competed for scholarship money and national forensic titles.

When rounds were completed, students waited anxiously for the infamous "advancement scroll" to be unfurled from a balcony or taped to a wall. Cheers went up as contestants found their ID numbers on advancement sheets, meaning they'd "broken" to the next round. It was evident who hadn't "broken" by tearful eyes and moans.

By Thursday, the elimination rounds were completed and the finals began. The line outside Abravanel Hall at the Salt Lake City Performing Arts Center wrapped around the place an hour and a half before the 5:30 p.m. event began. I imagined this was what it was like to attend the Academy Awards, and the emcee's black tuxedo seemed appropriate to the occasion.

The judges were introduced and the competition began. First up, in the category of humorous literature, was Contestant 301 performing "Click Clack Moo, Cows that Type". Putting faces with contestants' ID numbers was neat and I knew I was in for a show. Highlights included Interpretation of Dramatic Literature, the Duo Interpretation of Literature, and the Schwan Diamond Coaching awards.

Friday, however, was the highlight of my trip. The awards ceremony was held at the spectacular Mormon Tabernacle in Temple Square. What a perfect location, I thought. The peaceful, beautiful grounds calmed the nerves of the anxious competitors awaiting the fate of their long week. The tranquil location made you stop and reflect.

My role at the awards ceremony was to escort the first-place winners backstage for photos. As they left the stage, hearts were pounding, hands were shaking, some were so excited that they could hardly speak.

I hadn't anticipated such an emotional experience. I shared in their laughter, shed tears of joy – knowing so much hard work had paid off in that instant – and embraced a few winners just to keep them from falling.

I close with three expressions of thanks. Thank you, NFL. Your organization promotes excellence. Thank you, Lincoln Financial Group. Your support of the NFL makes me proud. Thank you, NFL participants. Your talent and drive inspired me. I even feel "cool" again.

'The People Speak 2004'

Public Debate/Discussion Initiative

By Becky Gudex, NFL Staff Member

The 'People Speak 2004' initiative is a joint public debate/discussion project between the National Forensic League and the United Nations Foundation. The goal of the project is for NFL schools all over the country to participate in public discussions on key foreign policy issues during the month of September 2004 with members of their communities. In order to be "Spea accepted as a "People Speak" Few a public debate/discussion project all and qualify for the NFL incentives, sthe school's public event must meet certain topic requirements, involve as least 25 members of the community, last a minimum of 30 minutes, and fill out the

"Speaking well is a gift. Few are born with it, but all of us can learn." Gillian Sorenson, Senior Advisor to the UN Foundation appropriate feedback and event forms. In April 2004, approximately 2,606 NFL schools received promotional materials describing the benefits and incentives of becoming a part of this exciting project. A 'People Speak' booth was also set up at the 2004 NFL National Tournament to further encourage schools to sign up for their September events.

Championship Extemping shares with aspiring extemp champions and their coaches the substance, style, and strategies the author used as he twice became a National Forensics League National Finals speaker in international extemp. Much of what he learned through lengthy and sometimes painful experience, extemp speakers can now access immediately.

This comprehensive, book-length guide to the NFL event of extemp speaking presents the substance of extemp, including analysis, thesis formation, and speech organization. It describes the types of knowledge requisite for championship extemping and presents best extemp practices in research, sourcing, and filing. The author also addresses extemp stylistics and shares his successful, personal strategy for placing as a Nationals finalist.

Mark Russell Royce, currently a student at Vanderbilt University, was the runner-up in international extemp at the 2002 NFL Nationals and placed third the previous year.

Xational Winners

Kubisch International Bowl

Ambassador Jack Kubisch contributed $500 to endow a special award to the contestant who wins the final round of Schwan International Extemporaneous Speaking at Nationals.

The Kubisch International Bowl, a silver engraved, footed bowl is presented to the student who, in the opinion of all final round judges, won the final round of International Extemp.

Ambassador Kubisch's idea was that the final round was like no other; a large audience, the very best contestants, cross examination, eleven judges; and its winner should be honored with a special award.

NFL thanks Ambassador Jack Kubisch for originating the idea and his generous support of this award. This year, the winner was Ishanaa Rambachan from Eastview HS, MN, coached by Todd Hering.

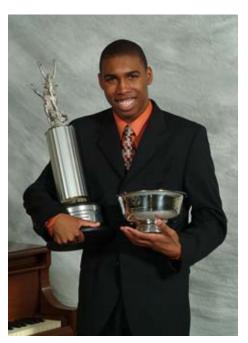

The Professor's Plate

The winning student of the final round of United States Extemporaneous speaking, as reflected by counting every one of the eleven final round judges, was presented the Professor's Plate in honor of Professor Paul Lorentzen, a long-time board member of the Public Employees Roundtable. The Professor, himself, a strong supporter of NFL, presented the plate to Courtney Otto from Kentucky Country Day (KY), 2004 final round winner, coached by Gregory W. Bowen.

The Elson Bowl, engraved with a likeness of Patrick Henry and the NFL Seal, was presented to Saeed Jones of Lewisville High School (TX), coached by Sally Squibb. Saeed was the winner of the 2004 final round of Patrick Henry Original Oratory.

Tom Montgomery

By Scott Wunn

Tom Montgomery, 53, passed away suddenly on Tuesday, June 22, 2004 of a heart attack.

Tom coached at Lodi High School, CA. His passion was speech, and for 27 years he dedicated his life to helping his students become successful through his speech and debate classes.

Tom was a great NFL coach and served the league well as the co-chair of National Speech Tab. It was an honor knowing and working with Tom. Scott Wunn,

NFL Executive Secretary

t Wunn, cretary Fame and in 2003, Tom was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame.

In 1993 Tom was inducted into the California

State Speech

Our sympathy goes out to Tom's wife Shirley, daughters, Andrea Cunningham and Meghan Bullington and granddaughter, Kira Cunningham.

Loss of NFL Family Members

Carrie Scott, NFL coach at Duncan High School passed away on April 5, 2004. The Western Oklahoma District of NFL, along with the entire speech community of Oklahoma, lost a dear friend and lifelong supporter of the speech and dramatic arts.

All who knew Carrie feel this loss, send good wishes to her family and friends, and continue to see every day spent in this activity as a worthwhile endeavor, based on Carrie's loving example.

Carrie herself competed in high school speech and drama, going to the state level of competition each year. While in college at Cameron University (OK), Carrie won gold (top 10%) in Poetry and Prose in the Pi Kappa Delta National Tournament held in New Jersey. Carrie galvanized the speech and theatre department at Duncan HS, (OK) sending numerous students to NFL nationals, placing students in the finals of humorous interp twice, winning the traveling trophy, and snaring numerous Sweepstakes awards along the way.

Carrie will be remembered for the positive impact she had on the lives of everyone who knew her, students and speech colleagues alike. Her NFL Diamond Key Coach Award has been awarded posthumously and fittingly commends Carrie to the speech community to which she gave so much.

Meet the Staff

Lisa Vossekuil NFL

By Jackie Oakes

Lisa Vossekuil started in March, 2003. In her first year working for the NFL, she has proven to be an outstanding member of the NFL Family.

Her main responsibilities include: printing all membership cards, advance degree sheets and, along with certificates, mailing them back to the schools. During the tournament season it could take all day to stuff envelopes and mail the previous days new members and advanced degrees.

Lisa does much more for the NFL. For example, she goes to the post office every day for the mail received by the office which is then sorted. During tournament season the volume of mail consists of several buckets of mail. Lisa is Joyce Krueger's backup for answering the phone. In addition, once a month. Lisa puts together the district standings mailing. When a new school wants to join the NFL, or a school that has been inactive wants to reinstate, she sends out supplies to get them started. Lisa helps with point recording and posting points for schools who send in credit point sheets. During district time, she also figures district points and records them online.

Starting in August, Lisa will type all letters for Leading Chapters, Clubs and All-Americans along with assisting with inhouse inventory. Lisa is also seen working at Nationals in registration on Sunday and then results through Thursday. On Friday she is handing out debate ballots.

"I just want to say that we made the right choice the day the NFL hired Lisa. She has proven to me she can handle any and all responsibilities I send her way."Jackie Oakes, Associate Secretary

Lisa loves a challenge. Once she starts a project, she does not want to stop until the job is complete. There are times when we have to remind her it is past lunch time or time to go home for the night.

Lisa was born and raised in Illinois and then moved to Ripon. She is a Chicago Bear fan. Lisa will be married to her husband, Darrell, 8 years this October. Lisa has two stepchildren, Mike, age 17 and Ellen age 22 along with their German Shepherd, Shelby.
