A HOT TIME IN A HOT TOWN

When your hot, you're hot! And when you're red hot, you're cool!

A record heat wave and the hottest competition in years made the Heart of the Nation National Tournament one of the most memorable - and best - in the NFL history.

Held at Park Hill High School, the Doubletree Hotel, and the legendary Kansas City Music Hall, the 64th Phillips 66 NFL National Speech finals was the largest in history. Final participation figures revealed that 205 debate teams, 210 L/D debaters, 380 extempers, 396 interpers, 196 orators, and 356 congresspersons - a total of 1948 contestants took part. Add to that mix 1005 registered judges and several hundred tournament workers, parents, visitors, and friends.

Tournament week began with a fast and flawless registration at the Doubletree. Students and coaches received materials and nice souvenirs. After meetings of district chairs, new coaches, and tab room officials the tournament moved to the historic and elegant Kansas City Music Hall downtown. This ornate symphony hall was the site for the opening assembly which dedicated the tournament to Missouri Hall of Fame coach Margaret Merideth. Associate Secretary - Emeritus Albert Odom gave a brilliant recitation of Miss Merideth's great record. Another opening night highlight was a moving speech by Council member Billy Tate as he officially accepted Hall of Fame designation for the great Georgia coach Sandra Silvers, who had earlier received her award in Calhoun.

As the thermometers bubbled Monday through Thursday, competition heated up at Park Hill High School. Two large buildings, Barry Hall and Congress Hall, were used for the tournament. Dr. Rudy Papenfuhs, principal, and Coach Don Crabtree saw to every detail so that every need was met smoothly and efficiently. Other very hard working Missourians included: Ben Martin, director of operations, whose unruffled manner and meticulous attention to detail solved every mini crisis; Mike Jeffers, director of public relations, whose long hours and well-organized planning notebook made each separate task a success; Sheri Shoemaker, local judge chair, who did a magnificent job in the tournament's most difficult job; Robert Shepard and Ron Jackson coordinated the popular souvenirs and gifts; Georgia Brady, Yvonne Sutter, and Nancy Todd conducted a perfect registration; Deborah McBride planned and conducted excellent hospitality and social events; Dana Hale and Kyle Howe were really helpful dealing with operations and facilities; James Morrill did a very good job with a tough task - transportation.

Hot events were the order of the day. The Sunday Student party featured dancing to the hottest teen tunes at the Doubletree (while the coaches chilled at the nearby Embassy Suites). The Thursday Bar-B-Que at the Marriott Hotel featured hot ribs and hot sauce!

Back to the Music Hall for Friday's finals - and a visit from C-SPAN, which video taped the final debate on health care.

The final rounds featured speaking at its very best and the close contests had judges pondering long as coaches hearts beat fast.

Then the final awards: Over $20,000 worth of beautiful silver and pewter trophies, designed by Brother Rene' Sterner and prepared by Weidlich Silversmiths were awarded to the National winners and finalists.

President Frank Sferra and Vice President Donus Roberts ran a smooth, and fast paced awards program which honored NFL students, coaches, and sponsors.

Everyone agreed -- when you're hot, you're hot. And when your red hot, that's cool.

And Kansas City was cool. Way cool!

NEW!---WEST COAST L-D HANDBOOKS

The 1994-1995 LD Topics

• OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTORS

Greg Miller, Director of Forensics, San Diego State University, Matt Taylor, Director of Forensics, Long Beach State University, and Jim Hanson, Director of Forensics at Whitman College publish the handbook. Plus, there are two articles written by Leah Castella (Lewis and Clark College, 1993 College Pi Kappa Delta National Lincoln-Douglas Champion) and Charlotte Smith (Whitman College, 1993 CEDA Nationals Quarterfinalist).

• HIGH QUALITY VALUE SPECIAL FORMAT

We use only high quality evidence that makes an important value argument, gives good reasons, and comes from a knowledgeable source. Our source citations meet N.F.L. standards. The handbook evidence is briefed to give students models for organizing their cases and files. The handbooks use concise, accurate, persuasive labels that are triple checked. The type is large 10 point print for easy reading.

• NEW! CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHERS AND VALUE BRIEFS

The Value and Philosophers Handbook, Volume 1 presents new material. While it does cover several traditional European white male philosophers like Immanuel Kant, you will not find the vast majority of our value and philosophy research in other handbooks. It focuses on fifteen new contemporary, multicultural and traditional philosophers including Richard Rorty, Alexandra Kollontai, Marilyn French, Jean Lyotard, and Molefi Asante. Each philosopher is explained in a one to two page summary, a bibliography is included for further reading and two to three pages of briefed evidence that students can use to make criteria and value arguments.

The Value and Philosophers Handbook, Volume 1 also includes 80 plus pages on important, contemporary values as argued by philosophers of the 1990's. Each value section includes many briefs on the most salient issues surrounding that value. These arguments are organized logically and will be invaluable to students when they argue issues including free speech, subjectivity versus objectivity, knowledge as power, technology, privacy, socialism versus capitalism, value praxis, civil disobedience and more.

• THE TOPIC VALUE HANDBOOKS

Available Two Weeks after the NFL Topic is Released

Each is 50 plus pages long and includes affirmative and negative cases, a topic overview, definitions and useful briefs on values, criteria and issues germane to the topic. There will be a Topic Value Handbook for the November-December, January-February, March-April and Nationals NFL LD topics.

BREAKING DOWN BARRIERS

Give your team the punch they need to win!

Written by Jim Hanson

The Prepbook

A must have for coaches with beginners and little immediate access to the library. Your beginners start on the new topic by reading the topic overview, bracketing short sections of articles, labeling/slugging the 100+ pieces of included evidence, using the definitions for topicality arguments, using included evidence to practice refutation and rebuttals. And, the included evidence is balanced negative and affirmative and chosen to insure good clash, so your students can really practice on the new Immigration topic.

The Textbook

Still a favorite because of its step by step instructions, clear examples, and illustrations, this is the book that revolutionized how debate can be taught. It takes debaters through evidence bracketing, briefing, filing, writing cases, practicing refutation, cross-examination, flowing, disadvantages and then on to advanced strategies, counterplans, and judge adaptation.

L/D TOPIC SELECTION PROCEDURE

by Lowell Sharp

In order to continue the tradition of openness from the National Forensic League, I wish to explain the development and choice of NFL L/D Topics.

The Lincoln-Douglas Topic Wording Committee is appointed by Mr. James Copeland. The following served on the 1994 - 1995 Wording Committee: Mr. Lowell Sharp, Golden HS, Colorado, Co-Chair; Mrs. Dale McCall, Wellington HS, Florida, Co-Chair; Mr. Frank Sferra, Mullen HS, Colorado; Rev. Raymond Hahn, Cathedral Prep School, Pennsylvania; Bro. Rene Sterner FSC, LaSalle College HS, Pennsylvania; Ms. Marilee Dukes, Vestavia Hills HS, Alabama; Ms. Lydia Esslinger, Syosset HS, New York; Mr. Byron Arthur, Jesuit HS, Louisiana; Ms. Barbara Garner, Duncanville HS, Texas; Mr. Edward M. Morris, Whitman HS, Maryland; Dr. Richard Hunsaker, Belleville Twp. West HS, Illinois; Mrs. Glenda Ferguson, Heritage Hall HS, Oklahoma; Mr. Jason Baldwin, Vestavia Hills HS, Alabama; and Dr. James Unger, American University, Washington D.C.

This Committee met for three days during the National Tournament. The meeting times were from 9:00 am. to 4:00 pm. The Committee began with 95 topics and/or topic areas. These topics and/or topic areas came from two sources -- all submitted by NFL coaches and students from throughout the nation -- those remaining from last year and those submitted this year as a result of the calls in the Rostrum. Prior to the 1994 Tournament, sub-committees were identified and each sub-committee was assigned an equal number of topics and/or topic areas with each sub-committee member assigned approximately seven topics and/or topic areas for consideration prior to our meeting. At the 1994 National Tournament, the sub-committees met and rewrote topics and/or topic areas and eliminated those that were too close to past topics or could not be worded into value topics. Sub-committee work reduced the number of topics to 49. The entire Committee then considered each of the 49 topics. Seventeen topics were then recommended by the total Committee to the NFL Council.

The Council then voted on the seventeen topics. That vote reduced the number to the ten topics which are offered for your voting in this Rostrum. The topic with the highest vote total will be used for 1995 National Tournament. The topic with the second highest total will be used for March -- April, 1995. The topic with the third highest total will be used for January -- February, 1995. The topic with the fourth highest total will be used for November -- December, 1994.

[Editors Note: The topic used for September -- October, 1995 will be formulated next summer in consultation with the topic sponsor, The Atlanta Paralympic Games.]

DO YOU WANT THE CURRENT L/D TOPIC?

You want the L/D topic and NFL wants you to have it, but --

The Problem

NFL is unable to handle the large number of callers requesting the L/D topic every two months.

One call from each of NFL's 2500 plus schools would be difficult, without the additional calls from *Several students from the same school on the same day.

*Teachers and students from Non-NFL schools who refuse to join NFL.

*Handbook publishers who do not advertise in the Rostrum.

*People who have received their Rostrum but would rather call than read.

*Collect, "emergency" calls demanding the topic!

Because the national office is small, hard working and understaffed, we can't handle the flood of calls at our busiest times. Yet everyone want the topic on the date of release, so --

The Solution

The L/D topic will always appear on the banner page of the Rostrum, is the official voice of NFL.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL telephone answering machine after 7PM Central Time weekdays and all day weekends and holidays. Call (414-748-6206) for the recorded message.

The L/D topic will always be available on our computer modem. Have your computer call (414) 748-9393 and you will find the L/D topic on the "Bulletin Board."

And some district chairs and state league directors send out newsletters with the L/D topic.

Remember

You can always get the topic by answering machine (evenings), computer modem, the Rostrum. So good debating -- and thanks for your understanding and cooperation.

1994-5 NFL L/D TOPIC BALLOT

RESPOND IMMEDIATELY

These ten topics have been selected by the NFL Executive Council to be voted on by all NFL chapters in September of 1994. The result of this balloting will determine the 1994-1995 Lincoln-Douglas debate topics.

Vote for no more than five topics. Ballots must be received in the NFL office no later than September 19. Vote now!

_____ Resolved: Laws which protect citizens from themselves are justified.

_____ Resolved: When in conflict, community standards are of greater value than individual liberty.

_____ Resolved: When in conflict, a business' responsibility to its owners transcends its responsibility to society.

_____ Resolved: Concern for human rights abroad ought to be the primary guiding principle of U.S. Foreign Economic Policy.

_____ Resolved: When in conflict, the safety of others is of greater value than the right to privacy of those with infectious diseases.

_____ Resolved: When in conflict, maintenance of an adolescent's confidentiality is of greater value than parental access to information about their child.

_____ Resolved: When in conflict, society's goal of eliminating discrimination transcends an individual's right to participate in exclusive, voluntary associations.

What the experts say about...

Lee Miller's U.S. Information

"One of the really first rate ideas in education is Lee Miller's weekly 'Kiplinger Style' newsletters for the forensic community. U.S. Information is top notch for weekly debate topic news updates. U.S. Law is also good. Debaters and extempers also appreciate U.S. Government and U.S. Economics. These periodicals are invaluable to serious students."

—JAMES COPELAND (Rostrum magazine)

"Naturally, I only agree with about half the information — the conservative stuff. But, I want to know where this newsletter was when I debated years ago and had to struggle to find the really good evidence."

— RUSH LIMBAUGH (EIB)

"The student's really use and enjoy it. They actually look forward to it each week."

— JEAN ADAMS (Sealy High School, Texas)

THERE IS NO THERE THERE

The crowd hushes. The orator, last speaker in the final round, moves towards the front of the room. He looks at the judges, who nod their heads. He glances down, then looks every member of the audience directly in the eyes. He says

"I Can See You Naked."

It's the title of a book. Your stampede to purchase it might be slowed by passing on the subtitle A Fearless Guide to Making Great Presentations. The author is Ron Hoff and he has some of the greatest tips an orator could ever use - not to mention everyone else in the communication field.

The ideas I'm going to explain to you come directly from the book, but with a few of my own examples. The subject is what that mythical speaker above either had or did not have. And the instant he stood up to speak, you knew it.

Presence.

I've tried to explain presence to my classes, but the best definition came from a freshman. Presence is when you are THERE. Really there. Ronald Reagan has Presence. George Bush does not. Robert E. Lee had presence. Ulysses S. Grant did not. Bart has it. Homer doesn't.

When you consider that judges make up their minds about whether you are in the top or bottom half of the round within the first thirty seconds of your presentation, this element of presence is critical. And it is not something that only a precious few have been blessed to enjoy. Anybody can capture the quality of presence. Some of us have it naturally. Others of us must learn it.

So let's analyze it. What are the elements of presence?

1. Openness. The presenter moves with a purpose that envelops the entire room. The attitude is outward, not inward, concerned with their own problems. Take two musical performers. One takes the microphone gingerly, the other seems to pick it up as an afterthought, just before the cue. Meanwhile, the open performer looks at the audience. A smile crosses her lips. The audience leans forward, expecting a great performance. This means a feeling of

2. Positive anticipation. We can hardly wait for the presenter to speak, because they are eager to perform. There is nothing about them that suggests reluctance. They want that spotlight. They seem to reach for it because

3. Nothing is tentative. They are prepared and here they come!

4. They move. Now, you probably cannot walk during an oratory into the audience a la Donahue, but you can use the front of the room and especially you may use the attitude of your body. How much of your time do you spend standing straight up, with your shoulders still and the center of your body in your chest? That is static and eventually boring to you audience. MOVE! Lean to one side, bend at the waist, turn to the side. Gestures can actually cross the body, you know. We are not limited to the Classic Debater Chop. And speaking of chopping,

5. They look good. This is seemingly bad news to those of us who are aesthetically challenged. But looking good does not mean looking beautiful. It means for the gentlemen -- the clothes fit. They are pressed. The tie is tied correctly, the shoes are clean, the socks aren't left over from gym class, and the hair is not in the eyes. For the ladies -- the clothes fit. They are not causing you to bust out all over, if you catch my drift. The shoes are not causing you to wobble like a new born colt. Makeup is minimal, and most importantly, the hair does not obscure your most important element of your presence -- your eyes. For all --

You look healthy. You look at the judge/s and a miracle occurs.

You smile.

I cannot recommend anything that will instantly add to your success more than a genuine smile that establishes a spark of communication between you and the judge/s. Of course, in adversarial American education, this is somehow considered a ploy -- kissing up. How very sad. Our opinions of people who smile are not merely influenced in the way that we like them -- we feel comfortable with them, too. In smiling at a judge, you are defusing an awkward situation not only for you, but for the critic.

6. They expect you to enjoy yourself. This, ultimately, is the secret of all great performances, no matter what the event. Take this motto and post it in a prominent place, and recite it after attendance every day.

The performance is for the benefit of the judge.

Good things happen to people with presence. There is no reason why you should not experience these good things. Presence is for all year, not just birthdays and Christmas.

Sorry.

(Bill Davis coaches at Blue Valley, KS and writes this regular Rostrum column.)

GUERRILLA BRIEFS

"You don't need the most evidence, you need the best evidence"

Policy and Lincoln Douglas Briefs specifically designed for the best debaters in the world.

EASY TO USE: Guerrilla Briefs provide complete blocks--no cutting and pasting. We take the burden of extensive research off your shoulders so you can focus all of your attention on strategic planning.

COACHING TIPS: Guerrilla Briefs provides debaters with coaching analysis on a wide range of arguments. We instruct you on when and how to run positions that avoid double turns, contradictions, embarrassment and reprimands from your coach!

WE MEAN WHAT WE SAY: Most importantly, Guerrilla Briefs' team of research experts have closely examined each piece of evidence so that tag lines are not overstated. Take the challenge! Turn to any page in a Guerrilla Briefs manual, and you will find concise, accurate tags above fully cited evidence.

Guerrilla Briefs offers two books of evidence: One for this year's policy topic concerning immigration, and the other designed to prepare the Lincoln-Douglas debater for nearly any position!

I. Guerrilla Briefs Policy: Guerrilla Briefs "Immigration: Friend or Foe?"

This handbook is one of the market's largest volumes with complete affirmative extensions, inherency blocks, killer counterplans, multiple disadvantages, case side significance reductions, solvency dictates and much, much more! Unlike so many other handbooks available today, Guerrilla Briefs refuses to rip you off by shoving old generic moldy meatball positions like Malthus, Inflation and Socialism down your throat. Virtually all of the evidence in this volume is dated 1994 and a significant amount of it comes from radio and television transcripts: evidence not offered in other handbooks and not easily obtained in your public libraries! Disadvantages link specifically to affirmative cases and provide realistic scenarios with low or high impact depending on the philosophy of your district. One Copy $22.50

II. Guerrilla Briefs L/D: Guerrilla Briefs "Philosophy: Friend or Foe?"

This enormous volume contains both affirmative and negative positions regarding the best of the ancient and classic philosophers as well as complete briefs on recent and contemporary philosophers. Briefs on paradigm and theory analysis give debaters an extra edge in L/D competition. No other book is so comprehensive in its scope. Recent CLS evidence is included as well as value objections ranging from the strictly theoretical to the empirically proven with absolute real world implications. One Copy $22.50

III. The Guerrilla Briefs Tee

A 100% Cotton Extra Large Guerrilla Tee with the Guerrilla Gorilla and Guerrilla Briefs logo on the front of the shirt.

CARRYING GUERRILLA BRIEFS INTO A ROUND WILL STRIKE FEAR IN YOUR OPPONENTS

Warning: Guerrilla Briefs are specifically designed for only the most competitive debaters in the world. Those with enough courage and determination to use this tool as a weapon will find their adversaries begging for mercy. Don't be caught dead without one. The only way to counteract Guerrilla Briefs is with another copy of Guerrilla Briefs. Fight fire with fire as a member of the Guerrilla Taskforce!

DKResearch

we make lincoln-douglas debaters more competitive.

Why should you buy DKResearch Lincoln-Douglas handbooks?

There are a number of handbook publishers who offer Lincoln-Douglas handbooks as a sideline to their policy handbooks. Many handbook publishers have freshman college debaters who research their handbooks. Some advertise a complete handbook delivered to you less than a week after a topic is announced.

Others are proud of the power packed by their generic arguments.

Why should you settle for anything less than the very best?

At DKResearch, the only handbooks we publish are LD handbooks. We stopped publishing CX materials so we could focus our full attention on the promise held by LD debate. At DKResearch, the owners do the research, read the articles, write the arguments, and edit the final product. We have a vested interest in your success. After all, our success is dependent on your success. At DKResearch, we don't rush our handbooks to publication. We don't publish a handbook until we would be ready to go to a tournament, armed only with our handbook. Finally, DKResearch offers only topic-specific evidence and arguments from the very best sources.

Why should you settle for anything less than the very best? You shouldn't.

IMMIGRATION TOPIC VIDEO

As a special educational service to high school debaters and coaches throughout the country the National Forensic League is pleased to announce production of the 1994 NFL Topic -- Tape. This videotape is designed to provide the national debate community with a concentrated synthesis of the argumentative experiences found in major debate institutes throughout the summer. We believe that only such a direct, selective, timely post-institute videotape featuring many of the finest collegiate debate coaches in the country can succeed in providing the entire high school debate community with the best cases and the best arguments at the best time.

Specifically, the 1994 NFL Topic -- Tape features:

- o Two full hours of expert focus upon the major issues of the Immigration topic.
- o Variable, creative formats including specific lectures upon major Aff and Neg positions... Wide ranging interactive expert discussions employing a vigorous roundtable format... Verbal and visual focused presentation upon suggested research materials and subject matter sources.
- o Experiential testing of all argumentation. Every issue discussed will have been subject to a vigorous vetting process at major summer institutes throughout the nation. Emphasis is placed upon verified and tested cases and arguments.

Presently invited contributors to the NFL Immigration Video feature many of the most distinguished names in American debate. Each will have previously served upon the staff at least one major summer institute in 1994. They include:

Sherry Hall, Harvard
Steve Mancuso, Michigan
Jeff Parcher, Georgetown
Dallas Perkins, Harvard

Joel Rollins, Texas
Alfred Snider, Vermont

Bill Southworth, Redlands
Ken Strange, Dartmouth
Melissa Wade, Emory
David Baker, St. Marks

Educational focus, topic discussions and tape format will all be supervised by Dr. James J. Unger, Director of the National Forensics Institute at The American University. Primary taping will occur at NFI studio headquarters at The Teaching Company in Springfield, Virginia.

Reserve your copy now. $14.99 plus $3.00 shipping and handling.

WORLDS DEBATE TEAM TO BE SELECTED

The United States entry in the Worlds Schools Debating Championship will once again be selected by NFL. The tournament will be held in February in Cardiff, Wales. Three to five applicants will be selected who meet the criteria.

- o must be a member of NFL
- o must be a senior in high school during the 1994 - 1995 school year
- o must be available for two weeks in February 1995
- o must have extensive experience in at least two of the following events:
 - extemporaneous speaking
 - policy debate
 - Lincoln-Douglas debate
- o must be available for three day training session in Toledo , Ohio, during the Christmas break
- o should have achieved well in history and literature courses
- o must be able to raise some of the cost of the experience (estimated maximum: $500)

Any NFL member of the class of 1995 who meets all criteria is encouraged to apply. An application letter, including experience and achievements (in the events specified, only, please) should be addressed to Mr. Tim Averill, Manchester High School, Lincoln Avenue, Manchester, Massachusetts 01944. Please include a statement of recommendation from your coach and a videotape of an extemporaneous speech on a subject of global political, social, or economic concern. This speech may be a rebuttal speech for a Lincoln-Douglas or a policy debate. It should be five to seven minutes in length. We shall be looking for a pleasant but incisive speaking style that can incorporate humor without being silly. The successful applicant will be able to convey the impression that s/he has good knowledge of the subject and is able to communicate that knowledge effectively. Additionally, as in any debate activity, the successful applicant will have to be able to think on his/her feet and adapt to and refute opponent arguments.

Flexibility is an extremely important skill. The Worlds Debate style uses three persons on each team, each of whom delivers a set speech of 8 minutes which may be neither read nor memorized verbatim. Interruptions for points of information are common and expected. And the single reply speech (rebuttal) is expected to summarize more than extend arguments. The selected team will spend some time before the tournament in intensive and extensive practice. Additionally, each team member will be given research and skills assignments which must be completed beforehand.

The selection committee will consist of Tim Averill, coach of the 1992 Worlds team which competed in England; Sue Wenzlaff, coach of the 1988 Worlds team in Australia and the 1993 team in Canada; Cat Honer Bennett, coach of last month's team in New Zealand; Richard B. Sodikow, adjudicator (judge) of international debates in England, Canada, and New Zealand and head of the last two delegations . Complete application letters, supporting documentation, and video tapes must be in Mr. Averill's hands not later than November 7, 1994.

Current juniors (class of 1996) should be thinking of applying early next fall (1995) for the February 1996 Worlds.

EXPLANATION

These results contain the round rank for each speech contestant and the round by round win-loss record of each debater through round 10. Advancement in Speech from round 6 to eliminations, round 8 to quarter finals, round 10 to semifinals and round 12 to finals is not always based upon ranks. If there is a question about advancement please consult the national tournament section of your chapter manual (See Section V, page TN3) or the tournament results booklet. These results are to help calculate NFL points. Speech rounds 11 and 12 are found on page 42. Debate Eliminations are listed on page 44.
