PRETTY

The most used adjective in travel articles and vacation brochures that describe Portland, Oregon is "pretty". With majestic Mt. Hood towering over the city, the raging Columbia just to the north and the sparking Willamette flowing through the city, Portland with its pristine air, modern downtown and Rose Festival is one of America's most beautiful cities. In the cool rain and in the bright sun; in the city or on the Portland State University campus, Portland is indeed "pretty!"

And so too was the "NW Rose Nationals"!

Pretty Big! This year's national tournament with 2,459 entries was the largest event NFL has ever conducted: 205 teams and 410 students qualified in Henry J. Kaiser Policy debate; while 221 students competed in Lincoln Financial Group L/D and seven teams and fourteen students reached the Kaiser Family Foundation Barbara Jordan Youth Debates on Health round robin finals.

Main speech events set records in almost every event: 205 Patrick Henry Memorial Orators, 201 PER/ASPA U.S. Extempers, 189 Dacor Foreign Extempers, 204 Lanny Naegelin Memorial Dramatic Interpers, 196 in Humorous Interp, and 199 teams and 398 students in Sandra Silvers Memorial Duo Interpretation.

The John C. Stennis National Student Congress seated a record 412 Congress people: ten chambers in the house and eight in the Senate.

Supplemental Event participation broke records: 317 participated in Prose; 204 in PER Extemp Commentary; 201 in Poetry and 154 in Expository.

Consolation events were bigger than ever. Impromptu hosted 281 contestants and the new Storytelling contest welcomed 80 storytellers.

Pretty Competitive! Foreign Extemp Gilbert Lee won by a 13 point margin and Humorous Interpreter John Egan won by 11. Oddly enough, Egan, who won Drama in 1999 at Phoenix, attends Eagan (MN) HS. Other events were much closer. Glenbrook- North (IL) survived an earlier debate loss to Brookings to win the final round rematch and USX was decided by a single point.

Myra Goodwin in her retirement year at Mt. Miguel (CA) coached a champion in Expository. Ted Belch of Glenbrook-North eclipsed H. B. Mitchell's debate coaching record with his fourth championship. Brookings High School (SD) coached by Judy Kroll was only the second school in NFL history with a chance to close out debate finals. Cat Horner Bennett coached her third champion in Extemp.

Pretty Exciting! The tournament began with top flight entertainment as the Peanut Butter quartet wowed the opening assembly audience with songs and patter that caused a standing ovation. Then on to Jazz at the Zoo. Zookeepers holding live birds greeted the NFL crowd at the gate: a raven, two rare hawks and a horned owl eyed the NFL teens as President Billy Tate exclaimed that the owl looked like Richard Sodikow. "Indeed it does, its name is Hooter and we have talked," boomed The Richard. Thursday was NFL at the movies as contestants had a choice of five first run films to view, free, courtesy of Bruce Wren and Regal Cinemas. Friday a world class awards show featured comedian Jim Shellard, movie clips, computer generated graphics, an exciting Oregon highlights video, $40,000 worth of awards and $125,000 in scholarships. Highlight of the evening occurred when Lincoln Regional CEO Jon Parsons drew five students names, dubbed them NFL Participants of the Year, and awarded them each a $1,000 scholarship!

Pretty Special! The Oregon Committee of Wayne Gessford and Susan McLain, co-chairs; Greg Oakes, Finance; Bruce Wren, Events; A. Jane Berry Eddings, Volunteers; Mary Jane Pelson, Hospitality; Judy McKeever, Oregon Judges; Helen Kelley and Laurie Cooper, Portland Operations; and Judy Robinson, Publicity did an absolutely first rate job, working long hours, smoothly answering questions and resolving problems.

Most observers dubbed the NW Rose Nationals as NFL's Best Tournament ever!

Congratulations to the Oregon crew. Your job was Pretty Darn Good!!

SEPTEMBER - OCTOBER 2000 LINCOLN FINANCIAL GROUP L/D TOPIC

R: Colleges and Universities have a moral obligation to prohibit the public expression of hate speech on their campuses.

The Rostrum provides an open forum for the forensic community. The opinions expressed by contributors to the Rostrum are their own and not necessarily the opinions of the National Forensic League, its officers or members. The National Forensic League does not recommend or endorse advertised products and services unless offered directly from the NFL office.

NFL L-D TOPIC DEVELOPMENT AND SELECTION PROCESS

by Lowell Sharp, L-D Topic Committee Chair

Many of us who work on the development and publication of Lincoln-Douglas debate resolutions often assume that most coaches and students in the nation are aware of the selection process. We tend to forget that there is a relatively high turnover of coaches and that the turnover of students is complete every four years. In order to bring everyone up to date concerning the topic selection process a description of this year's NFL L-D Topic Committee's activities starting with the nationwide call for topics is in order.

The April, 2000 Rostrum published a request to mail proposed topics to me by April 20. At approximately the same time Mr. Fred Robertson, who served on the selection committee this year as an alternate, kindly offered on the LD-L (an internet list for L-D debate) to collect proposals made there and mail them to me. The request for topics resulted in my receiving 106 topic suggestions. The total list of topic proposals was then randomly divided into 9 sets of proposals. Each of the nine members of the committee were assigned one of the sets of topics and asked to do some preliminary work with them prior to the National tournament.

At the National Tournament in Portland the committee then began weeding and reworking the topic proposals. The committee agreed to several guidelines in developing the final list of ten topics. Two of those guidelines were to avoid topics debated by NFL in the past four years and to avoid topics with excessive "baggage." This latter was done to help avoid an uneven playing ground for competitors due to excessive emotional attachment by judges. It was also an attempt to avoid causing NFL and coaches unreasonable problems in persuading parents that our activity is a sound one.

The committee reached agreement on several additional guidelines for the final list of ten topics. We would attempt to avoid duplication in topic areas, make each topic researchable with balanced affirmative and negative ground, and the topics should deal with current issues. The committee also agreed that some "recycling" of past NFL topics could happen, but only if the area was suggested in the proposed topics and only if the topic had worked well in the past. Additionally, some topics which have been on the ballot in the past but failed to be selected might be "recycled" if sufficient demand for that area was found in the 106 current proposals.

With these general guidelines in mind, the committee proceeded to spend three very long and arduous days developing the ten topics on the ballot you find in this Rostrum. Two thousand copies of those ten topics were then distributed at the tournament. The final step will now be the vote of NFL coaches throughout the nation. Due to time and publishing constraints, two of the topics for this school year (September-October and November-December) were chosen by the coaches last year. The nationwide vote of NFL coaches will now determine the NFL L-D resolutions for January-February, March-April, and the National Tournament of this school year as well as the September-October and November-December resolutions for the next school year.

Should you not like any or very few of the ten topics on the ballot this year, be certain to submit your favorite suggestions when the call goes out next April. Should you like all of the ten topics on the ballot this year, be certain to be part of the process and submit your favorite suggestions when the call goes out next April.

2001 NFL L-D TOPIC BALLOT RESPOND IMMEDIATELY

These ten topics have been selected by the NFL L-D Wording Committee to be voted on by all NFL chapters in the fall of 2000. The result of this balloting will determine the 2001 Lincoln-Douglas debate topics: Jan.-Feb. (3rd), March-April (2nd), Nationals (1st), Sept.-Oct. 2001 (5th), Nov. - Dec. 2001 (4th).

Vote for no more than five topics. Ballots must be received in the NFL office no later than November 1. Vote now by mail or fax!

Resolved that:

- _____ The right of an individual to emigrate ought to be valued above a nation's right to limit immigration.
- _____ When in conflict, equal treatment under the law ought to take precedence over the exercise of prosecutorial discretion.
- _____ Hate crime warrants additional punishment.
- _____ In the United States, business monopolies ought to be allowed to operate free of antitrust regulation.
- _____ The public's right to know ought to be valued above the right to privacy of candidates for public office.
- _____ On balance, violent revolution is a just response to oppression.
- _____ When they are in conflict, alleviation of a pressing social concern justifies governmental infringement of a patent right.
- _____ Decentralized governmental power ought to be a fundamental goal of democratic society.
- _____ The possession of nuclear weapons is immoral.
- _____ A lesser developed nation's right to develop ought to take priority over its obligation to protect the environment.

Don't Ask/Don't Tell is The Case at Institutes

Gays in the military has been identified as one of the core cases on this year's policy privacy topic. Students have spent the summer preparing to argue/refute such cases at Dartmouth, Emory, Michigan, Texas, Wake Forest, and Iowa, to name a few. Victory Briefs had identified this topic area as a key one before Nationals, and this case is included in the Policy Handbook, written by the likes of Aaron Timmons, Caitlin Talmadge, Todd Fine, Andrew Bradt, Jeff Rosenfeld, Arsalan Suleman, Asher Haig, and others. The nearly 300 page book includes a Novice Section, How to Research, and fully-evidenced affirmatives for the various topic areas, as well as business e-commerce and crime disadvantages, and kritiks. A must-have!

New Privacy Guide from Victory Briefs

Become a champion on the affirmative ...

This book offers seven different ready-to-run affirmatives, including racial profiling, parental notification, genetic testing, and the 1974 Privacy Act, among others. Find the case that's right for you and your partner's interests, skills, and circuit -- we offer a variety, modeled after the most popular cases from institutes such as Dartmouth, Michigan, Emory, Stanford, Bates, and Northwestern. We also provide explanatory information about each affirmative so you'll know all of the nuances.

... And get the edge on the negative!

We include plenty of negative evidence. Our book gives you a chance to read up on other team's cases, even if you decide not to run them yourself.

The Victory Briefs Guarantee. Original research -- we do not recycle college debaters' backfiles or slap together random evidence. Qualified authors -- these affirmatives are written by Caitlin Talmadge (1998 NFL Champion and 1998 TOC runner-up) and Jeff Rosenfeld (4-time GA state champ). Other companies won't even tell you who works for them! Better sources -- this book includes hard-to-find evidence from Lexis-Nexis, as well as resources from the Harvard Library system. Victory Briefs will ensure you're ready from round one.

New Political Process Counterplan Book

The process of policymaking is a complicated one and issues of implementation often make their way to the forefront of a debate. Such debates will be particularly important this year, since multiple branches of government as well as independent agencies may all be up to the task of improving privacy protection. Thus, the four counterplans contained in this book will prove invaluable this year: (1) the Supreme Court counterplan argues that the judiciary is a superior actor to Congress; (2) the Congress counterplan, in contrast, argues that legislative action is superior; (3) the non-delegation counterplan posits that rather than let an executive agency take discretionary action, it is constitutionally superior to force Congress to act; and (4) the Ex Parte Merryman counterplan suggests that having the President act would be the best option.

Talmadge and Bradt Team Up Again!

The 1998 NFL Champions, TOC runner-ups, and Texas State Champions (and assistant coaches at Lexington MA and Highland Park TX) offer the tips, strategies, and insights that made them championship debaters in all arenas of competition. The book covers the basics, paradigms, disads, counter-plans, permutations, topicality, the kritik, speech strategies, and more! A great book for novices, advanced debaters, and coaches.

Victory Briefs Revamps its Website

This summer, Victory Briefs has completely overhauled the look of its website. Check it out for all of the latest information. New features include: (1) a weekly look at the news from an extemper's perspective (2) the summer Institute case list for the privacy policy topic; (3) additional columnists including Blaine McPhillips, David Vivero, Jon Squires, Max Miller, and Bill Batterman.

Congratulations Adam Preiss & New LD Staff

Adam Preiss from Monte Vista - Danville H.S. CA -- the newest addition to the Victory Briefs staff -- won the 2000 NFL National tournament in Portland. New additions to the staff include James Scott (2000 TOC Champion), Seamus Donovan (2000 TOC Runner-up), Bill Batterman, Anthony Berryhill, Sumon Dantiki, Nathan Foell, Eric Gehrie, Sean O'Donnell, and Jonnie Vollbrecht. VB now has the NFL champ for 2000, 1999, 1992, and 1991, as well as the TOC champ for 2000 and 1994. These staff members are responsible for putting together the topic handbooks for each of the NFL topics. Each is a 80+ page book, featuring 3-5 overviews, and is generally available 10-14 days after the topic is announced by the NFL.

Many Debaters Like Judicial Activism

Many NFL watchers like the judicial activism topic for either the Sept/Oct or Nov/Dec topic for this year. You can start thinking about the topic with Value Handbook 2, which includes a section on judicial activism. Other sections include liberty and order, Rawls, Sandel, Reiman, Hume, Environment, Teleology v. Deontology, Political Duty, Aristotle, Rand, and more.

New Value Handbook 3 a Success!

Approximately 100 pages, Value Handbook 3 covers Contractualism, Kantian ethics, Locke, Moral Argument, a new take on Autonomy and its value, Moral Obligation and Supererogation, Egalitarianism and Social Equality, Justiceas Giving Each Their Due, and Justice as Fairness! Volume 1 covers free speech, equality, justice, life, social contract, utilitarianism, dignity, moral obligation, Kant, and fallacies.

Congratulations Gilbert Lee & New Extemp Staff

Gilbert Lee from Bridgewater NJ for winning the 2000 NFL Foreign Extemp Championship. The Victory Briefs extemp staff includes Jay Cox (1999 NFL Nat'l Final Round Champ), Chad Ho (1990 NFL Champion), Chris Kristofco (2-time college Nat'l Champion), Joe Gallagher, Brian Garfield, Amy Moffett (2nd place 2000 NFL US Extemp), Ted Murphy, Jason Warren, Amol Jain, Peyman Momeni, Robin Cook, Yoni Schneller, Inbal Alon, and David Buckley.

These staff are putting together the brand-new extemp briefs, two unique handbooks designed to provide background and historical information that extempers can use to buttress their knowledge of current events. Brief areas have been announced as follows: US - Politics, Military, Foreign Policy, Environment, Health Care, Education, Social Security, Crime. Foreign -- UN, Russia, China/Taiwan/Hong Kong, Israel and Peace Process, Africa, India & Pakistan, the EU, and Northern Ireland. For a free sample, go to our website.

DACOR INTERNATIONAL BOWL

Ambassador Jack Kubisch and the board of DACOR (Diplomatic and Consular Officers, Retired) have each contributed $500 to endow a special award to the contestant who wins the final round of Foreign Extemporaneous Speaking at Nationals.

The DACOR International Bowl, a silver, engraved, footed bowl is presented to the student who, in the opinion of all final round judges, won the final round of foreign extemp.

Ambassador Kubisch's idea was that the final round was like no other: a large audience, the very best contestants, cross examination, 9 judges, and its winner should be honored with a special award.

NFL thanks Ambassador Jack Kubisch for originating the idea and his generous support of this award and Dacor Executive Director Ambassador Robert Service and the DACOR board for co-sponsoring foreign extemp and endowing the DACOR bowl. This year, Diplomat Benjamin Fleck, presented the DACOR International Bowl to Gilbert Lee of Bridgewater-Raritan Regional (NJ) HS.

Diplomat Benjamin Fleck, Gilbert Lee and Coach Paula Mittleman

THE CHAIRPERSON'S CHALICE

The winning student of the final round of United States Extemporaneous speaking, as reflected by counting every one of the nine final round judges was presented the Chairperson's Chalice in honor of Public Employees Roundtable Chairperson Dr. Joan Keston. Joan, the first woman to be granted NFL National Honorary Membership, is a wonderful role model for youth contemplating government service careers.

As Executive Director of PER, Joan developed and implemented Public Service Recognition Week which features of displays on the Mall in Washington, D.C. and several celebrations highlighting the contributions of government workers, including the famous "Breakfast of Champions." Dr. Keston is a powerful advocate of NFL.

WHAT YOU CARRY IS ALL THAT MATTERS!

PARADIGM Research

WHAT YOU CARRY IT IN MAKES NO DIFFERENCE AT ALL!

You can carry whatever you like - file boxes or ox boxes - plastic tubs or banana boxes - even index cards in steel trays. It doesn't matter. What does matter is what's in the container - the research and arguments you've prepared for the debates. That's what defines your level of success.

We know this to be true. That's why we go to so much trouble to assemble the finest staff, conceive the most creative projects, and deploy the absolute best research the debate community has ever known. So, Paradigm Research is ready for the 2000-2001 debate season. When you're ready to acquire debate research, call us. We've got what's inside - that's what counts.

DO YOU WANT THE CURRENT L/D TOPIC?

You want the L/D topic and NFL wants you to have it, but --

The Problem

NFL is unable to handle the large number of telephone callers requesting the L/D topic every two months.

One call from each of NFL's 2600 plus schools would be difficult, without the additional calls from

-  Several students from the same school on the same day.
-  Teachers and students from Non-NFL schools.
-  Handbook publishers who do not advertise in the Rostrum.
-  People who have received their Rostrum but would rather call than read.
-  Collect, "emergency" calls demanding the topic!

Because the national office is small, hard working and understaffed, we can't handle the flood of calls at our busiest times. Yet everyone wants the topic on the date of release, so--

The Solution

The L/D topic will always appear on the banner page of the Rostrum, the official voice of NFL.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL telephone answering machine. Call (920) 748-LD4U (748-5348). Call anytime 24 hours a day for the recorded topic.

The L/D topic will always be available on our computer modem. Have your computer call (920) 748-9393 and you will find the L/D topic on the "Bulletin Board."

And it will be on the NFL Website at Debate Central:

<http://debate.uvm.edu/nfl.html>

Remember

You can always get the topic by answering machine, computer modem, the Rostrum or the Web. So good debating -- and thanks for your understanding.

POWER PUNCH DEBATE BRIEFS

Power Punch has the best guarantee for quality of any handbook on the market! Try it before you buy it! If you don't like the first 100 pages, you don't have to buy anything, and the first 100 pages will not cost you a penny.

Power Punch is giving away 100 pages of evidence on this year's topic! That's right. Free Evidence. No cost. Complementary.

The rules are so simple:

- Free Evidence includes the first 100 pages of the First Negative Book on the CX topic, Privacy
- Free evidence is available by email only
- Free evidence is formatted into PDF files, which work with all computers, PC and Mac
- Don't send ten requests from the same high school. This only clogs the email accounts and prevents others from accessing the information

If you want the free evidence, email to DebateKing@aol.com
Put "free evidence promo" in the subject line

Why are we giving evidence away?

The quality of our products is our best marketing tool.

Many companies sell briefs. Few will let you see them before you pay for them. And if you are disappointed, too bad. Your money is gone. If you read our Power Punch Briefs, and don't like them, you're not under any obligation to give us a penny. If you see Power Punch Briefs, and you like them, and we are confident you will, you will become Power Punch customers now or in the future.
