- When in conflict, the letter of the law ought to take priority over the spirit of the law.
- When in conflict, globalization ought to be valued above national sovereignty.
- When in conflict, a business' responsibility to itself ought to be valued above its responsibility to society.
- In the U.S. judicial system, truth seeking ought to take precedence over privileged communication.
- In the United States, federal control is the best way to improve public education.
- Rehabilitation ought to be valued above punishment in the U.S. criminal justice system.
- In Constitutional conflicts, the "establishment of religion" clause should be given priority over the "free exercise" clause.
- Government limitations on political campaign spending are antithetical to democratic ideals.

THE LAST BIG SHOW

And what a show it was! The ornate Belk Theater in Charlotte, NC played host to the greatest awards assembly in NFL history! An evocative video of tournament week carefully crafted by Producer Mark Ferguson caused cheers and tears for the audience of 2100. MC extraordinaire Jim Shellard mixed juggling and speech events in a riotous opening act. Famous NFL alum Ted Turner delivered a rousing keynote speech. Then the awards began - introduced by scenes from Hollywood films and live performances. The hit of the evening was a miniature Lincoln-Douglas debate featuring internationally famous Lincoln impersonator Fritz Klein and Richard B. Sodikow as Steven A. Douglas. Fifty Thousand Dollars worth of awards and over $120,000 dollars in scholarships were presented, including five $1,000 scholarships to "Participants of the Year" and $60,000 to the LFG Circle of Champions by the Lincoln Financial Group, national sponsor of NFL.

Barbara Miller and her wonderful Charlotte Committee played host to 2,474 participants, an all-time record: 197 teams (394 students) entered Kaiser policy debate and 26 qualified in Barbara Jordan Debate; 226 Lincoln Financial Group L/Ders competed; 200 Patrick Henry Auxiliary orators spoke as did 195 Schwan's International extempers and 201 PER/ASPA US Extempers; 208 students entered Lanny Naegelin DI; 195 teams with 390 contestants participated in Schwan's Duo Interp and 198 humorists competed in the newly sponsored Western Kentucky University Humor event.

The John C. Stennis Congress seated 243 in the House and 193 in the Senate. Supplemental and Consolation participants included 225 in Prose, 175 in Poetry, 199 in PER Commentary, 140 in Expository, 330 speakers in Western Kentucky University Impromptu and 117 in Storytelling.

The Crew of NFL's "Last Big Show"

Comedian MC Jim Shellard, Executive Producer Mark Ferguson, Secretary Jim Copeland and Producer P.J. Samorian. Missing: Stage Manager Mike Burton

What a beautiful tournament! Charlotte, the Queen City, was at its very best: excellent weather, a new Waddell High School, the elegant North Carolina Blumenthal Performing Arts Center. Barbara Miller, NFL's most elegant coach, coordinated a wonderful experience for all.

What an exciting tournament! Glenbrook North's try for four in a row was frustrated as St. Mark's School of Texas won debate and the top two Phyllis Barton Speaker Awards! Bob Kelly, legendary coach at Chesterton, came out of retirement to coach the winner in Schwan's International Extemp. Both L/D finalists survived the runoff round. Jay Ward won for the second straight year in PER/ASPA US Extemp while Amanda Knight, coached by great Cheryl Ryne, was second. Nick Kanellis, grandson of Hall of Fame Coach Dave Kanellis won WKU Humor. Pauline Carochi, who won the Ralph Carey Trophy as district chair, also coached the winner in PER Commentary.

What a fun tournament! Schwan's kicked off tournament week Sunday by hosting the Red Baron Bash and Dance Party at the Concord Airport. Vintage Stearman biplanes offered rides. A video lip sync studio allowed kids to perform. While many danced to a VJ, others enjoyed inflatable games like a sinking Titanic and a jousting ring. Of course, everybody stuffed themselves with hot Red Baron pizza!

Schwan's also sponsored an elegant tribute to diamond key coaches on Thursday evening and a refreshing Schwan's Premium Ice Cream Social Friday afternoon.

There will be other great nationals - next year Dr. David Cheshire and Dr. Carol Winkler will welcome NFL qualifiers to Georgia State in Atlanta, but Charlotte will long be remembered as the last year of double entry and the "last big show!"

The State Department wants you to debate in Belarus or Azerbaijan - see the inside back cover for full details on how your school can apply for this State Department funded partnership.

Whitman National Debate Institute

July 27 - August 7, 2003 (2 week session)

July 27 - August 13, 2003 (3 week session)

hosted by Whitman College, Quarters, 2002 NDT, Tenth, 2002 NPTE

Why Whitman's camp?

1. Individual attention: 4 to 1 staff to student ratio and the vast majority of your time will be spent in small labs with four to six people and a staff member, not in a lecture room with 100 people; not in a lab with 12 to 16 people with two staff members.
2. Practice and drills. You won't just do debates at the end of camp. You will do drills with clear feedback throughout the camp.
3. Research. We put out hundreds and hundreds of pages of cases and briefs with strategies that win debates.
4. Instruction diversity. You won't get stuck in one lab with one or two lab leaders you might not work with best. We rotate labs so you work with all of our staff members.
5. Family feel. People at our camp feel connected, not isolated. Whether you are shy, into sports, critical, outgoing, whatever, you'll find your niche. We make an effort to reach out to students, to build up community, and to give people space to be who they are.

Policy Debate

You experience top-notch instruction in the arguments, theory, and strategies you need to win on the 2003-2004 high school topic.

- Ideas for cases, disadvantages, counterplans, etc.
- Intense analysis of the wording of the 2003-2004 topic
- Lectures on kritiks, counterplans, strategies, performativity, and rebuttals

You won't just hear about these arguments. You will practice plan inclusive counterplans, kritiks, permutations and more specific to this topic. And, when you practice, you won't just talk. Our staff of nationally competitive debaters and coaches will give you specific suggestions for improvement and you'll rework your speeches.

Our camp works hard to produce the briefs you need to be successful during the year. You will leave camp with completely indexed and shelled briefs including affirmative cases with backup briefs; responses to key topic cases; disadvantage, kritik and counterplan shells with backup briefs and responses; and topicality arguments, definitions, and responses.

LD Debate

You receive an outstanding, well-rounded training in Lincoln-Douglas debate to make you nationally and regionally competitive. You'll be part of intensive discussions on:

- Arguments to use for criteria, values, contentions, and philosophies
- Key aspects of the 2004 NFL LD topics
- Lectures on judge adaptation, rebuttals, innovative strategies that win

You will work closely with our staff to develop your skills in making these arguments. You won't just hear about Rawls or Foucault. You will engage in many debates with critiques and redos plus practice sessions covering refutation, rebuilding arguments, cross-examination, philosophy, values and criteria. You will leave with affirmative and negative cases on the NFL-LD topics plus briefs on key values and criteria to use on any topic.

Everyone at camp receives all the policy or LD arguments produced while you are at the camp with no extra charges.

2002 LFG Circle of Champions

Annual video speech contest winners announced

The 2002 national tournament culminated with a very exciting awards ceremony. Not only were the top six winners in each category, along with their coaches, honored and given trophies but also recognized were the first- and second-place winners of the second annual Lincoln Financial Group Video Speech Contest. This contest, consisting of a five-minute video speech on "The Fourth R: Retirement Planning – it's never too early to start," gave NFL members an opportunity to learn about the advantages of early retirement planning and compete for an educational scholarship at the same time. The winners automatically qualified for the national tournament in expository speech.

Spencer Lewis, Dickson County High School, Dickson, TN was the first-place winner and the recipient of a $2,000 scholarship. Lewis' coach, Glenda Lee Sullivan, received a $500 honorarium. Lewis' speech took him to the final round of the expository speech competition at Nationals.

The second-place winner, Divya Agarwal, Fargo North High School, Fargo, ND received a $1,000 scholarship. Agarwal's coach, Anne McSparron, also received a $500 honorarium.

You can view excerpts of these winning speeches on LFG.com.

See this issue of Rostrum for details on next year's video speech contest.

Abe Lincoln pays tournament a visit

The national tournament was honored with a special appearance of the 16th President, Abraham Lincoln. Played by one of the foremost Lincoln actors of today, Abe (Robert E. "Fritz" Klein) served as "head judge" for the final rounds of the Lincoln-Douglas debates.

National tournament attendees were able to capture a "Kodak moment" with Abe during the tournament. The photos were placed in a keepsake frame, on which Abe personally provided his "John Hancock".

Lincoln Financial Group is proud to continue their sponsorship with the National Forensic League and wishes the best of luck to all National Forensic League student members and coaches for a successful upcoming season.

"To succeed today, you must be able to share your thoughts effectively with others," noted Jon Boscia, chairman and chief executive officer, Lincoln Financial Group. "We support programs like the NFL because they teach young people the communication skills they'll carry with them their entire lives. And there is no smarter investment than the ones we make in today's youth."

My NFL experience... I was impressed!

by Garry Spence

Vice President / Executive Director, Lincoln Financial Group

I had the great pleasure of spending a week at the 2002 National Forensic League tournament in Charlotte, North Carolina (June 16-21, 2002) and wanted to share my experience with others. From the first day of registration until the final award was given on Friday evening, I was impressed with the participants that came from every state in this nation. It was a memorable tournament and a reminder of the incredible young and talented minds that we have throughout our country.

First, I should congratulate Barbara Miller of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System and her team of volunteers for organizing a fun and exciting week for the participants. Her role was a most difficult one as she arranged to accommodate, house, feed and entertain over 3,000 visitors to her city. The facilities that she negotiated for the NFL were marvelous with the Finals being held at the Belk Theatre in downtown Charlotte. It was an outstanding venue.

NFL 2002 National champions

Next, I commend the sponsors who give selflessly to the cause of forensics. The sponsorships enabled the participants to enjoy their National Tournament, make new acquaintances and see old friends. Sponsors provided many gifts, food, telephone cards, theme park passes and an evening dance for the students to unwind and relax.

Lincoln
Financial Group®

Now, let me tell you about the students. The thing that impressed me most during my week at the NFL tournament in Charlotte was the level of talent among these young men and women. The talent I witnessed was stunning and I am not one to be easily impressed. The students were simply spectacular. Their knowledge of world events, vocabulary and self-awareness were extremely impressive and far more advanced than most high school students and perhaps most college students that I have known. They were highly trained and skilled speakers, debaters, presenters and comedians. All the participants had a focus and a drive to succeed that is not usually seen in this age group. But they were also just teenagers...they smiled, laughed, joked around, listened to Discman's and ate ice cream and pizza.

I was also very impressed with the polite and gentle kindness of the students. Everyone was genuinely appreciative of everything that they received from the sponsors. They were extremely polite and cordial to other participants as well as the public that came to observe. Although it was a very competitive environment, there was a "professional courtesy" among them. No one was loud or rowdy and no discipline was required. For a group of high school students, this is quite unusual.

What I took from my NFL National experience was a feeling of gratitude, knowing the next generation is going to be okay and in fact, will be excellent. We often hear and read in the media the negative things that are happening among our youth: falling test scores, drugs, gangs, teenage pregnancy, etc. We are lead to believe that ALL teenagers fall into these categories. Well, I have a new optimism; our youth is in fact smarter and brighter than ever before and will graduate to corporate America to provide the talents and skills needed to continue America's growth and dominance as a world leader.

In closing, I encourage anyone that has not attended a NFL National Tournament to plan now to attend in Atlanta, Georgia in 2003. Your time will be well spent and your life will be forever changed.

Many of you already know us ...

"Victory Briefs is truly the best evidence deal out there. Their analysis is top notch from novice to Nat's competitor. Case writing, raw ideas, these guys have got it all. This is one of the few briefs I bother with before my team gets it."

- Mr. Carcerano, Andress H.S. (TX)

"Victory Briefs are a great addition to our team's research and topic analysis. They map out the main issues of the resolution and provide a wide range of evidence for both sides, from many points of view. We especially appreciate that each brief is constructed from scratch—you don't get 'rehashed' cards from past resolutions or generic arguments, but cogent, thoughtful analysis."

- Carole Hamilton, Carey Academy (NC)

"From quoting Victor in final round competition in 1990 to buying them for our novices in summer camp, our debaters have always considered Victory Briefs the best Lincoln-Douglas material available for purchase. We missed them when they went out of print and rejoiced when they came back better than ever."

- Carol Biel, Chesterton High School (IN)

"Victory Briefs provide a depth of analysis unmatched by any other debate publication, yet are written in a simple and logical manner that can be useful to everyone from the beginning novice to the advanced varsity debater. The writers are experienced debaters themselves who know that the true essence of debate does not lie in an attempt to provide all the answers, but more importantly to ask questions which stimulate further investigation of the resolution."

- Matt Gregoline, 2000 Indiana State Champion

"My kids love the books and briefs...Thank you for all your help..."

- Anita Boyd, R.H. Watkins H.S. (MS)

"These books are not mere cheat sheets. They provide evidence in the context of its analysis. They are an excellent educational resource."

- Judith McMasters, Bishop Kelly H.S. (OK)

"The analysis from past and present champions are of the highest quality and truly give meaning to the evidence. Even before debating, my students have a good idea of what the arguments mean and how to run them. I'm very impressed, as is my team, with the quality ... Keep it up!"

- Mitch Gentry, West Bakersfield H.S. (CA)

"Our Lincoln-Douglas debaters are can hardly wait for each installment of the Victory Briefs. They use the authors' insights to help clarify their thinking about the resolutions. Our success is because we are using the Victory Briefs."

- Steve Gargo, Appleton West H.S. (WI)

Victory Briefs – long known for its LD, extemp, and policy materials – is proud to present its materials for the 2002-2003 policy debate topic.

Policy Case Areas – Book 1

This 300-page plus book explores several case areas in depth, including a case area overview, a LAC, extension evidence, and negative evidence. Areas include: mental health care for prisons, for foster children, for the DOD, for victims of rape/domestic violence, as a part of medicare, and for non-drug ADHD treatment. For example:

- "In the most public of professions, criminals often experience mental health problems. Due to an oversight by officials, those who are mentally ill often are left untreated and commit worse crimes, injuring others and themselves. Ask the USFG to take responsibility!"

- "In the present system, Medicare coverage for mental health services are limited in scope and in coverage. This case seeks to rectify this gap in the safety net and explore the issues of poverty and age."

Policy Case Areas – Book 2

Areas include: eating disorders, Native Americans, employee benefits, missile silos, post-partum depression, and the homeless. For example:

- "The highest killer of all mental health problems is devastating. Eating disorders hide behind the mask of a diet or perfectionism."

"Failure to provide adequate mental health care for the homeless overwhelms other stop-gap anti-poverty efforts and is locking the terminally poor into a cycle of poverty. Despite some recent federal action, only across-the-board federal reform of HCH programs can hope to break this cycle of homelessness."

Negative Positions – Book 1

This book (over 350 pages in length) includes counterplans (courts and states), disadvantages (for courts, congress, federalism, economy), topicality, and comprehensive politics links.

Negative Positions – Book 2

This book (250+ pages) focuses on some of the more important kritiks; critical legal studies, feminist jurisprudence, Foucault, and ageism. For example:

"Popular conceptions of the mentally healthy and the mentally unhealthy are social constructions that are used by the dominant (government, upper class) to oppress the periphery (in this case, the "crazies"). Humans should stop judging others on perceived mental health – it is a standard that can only be used to strengthen the elite."

KUBISCH INTERNATIONAL BOWL

Ambassador Jack Kubisch contributed $500 to endow a special award to the contestant who wins the final round of International Extemporaneous Speaking at Nationals.

The Kubisch International Bowl, a silver, engraved, footed bowl is presented to the student who, in the opinion of all final round judges, won the final round of international extemp.

Ambassador Kubisch's idea was that the final round was like no other: a large audience, the very best contestants, cross examination, nine judges; and its winner should be honored with a special award.

NFL thanks Ambassador Jack Kubisch for originating the idea and his generous support of this award. This year, the winner was Joshua Johnson of Lewisville (TX) HS.

Winner Jay Ward of Coral Springs HS, FL

Winner Katie Georgen of Plymouth HS, IN

JAMES ELSON AWARD BOWL

Dr. Jon Kukla, the new Patrick Henry Memorial Foundation Executive Vice President - CEO, and the board members of the Patrick Henry Memorial at Red Hill, wished to commemorate the years of outstanding service given to the Foundation by retired Executive Vice President-CEO James Elson, a renown authority on Patrick Henry and on the art of Oratory.

The Elson Award Bowl, engraved with a likeness of Patrick Henry and the NFL Seal, was presented by Dr. Elson to Katie Georgen of Plymouth High School, who won the 2002 final round of Patrick Henry Original Oratory.

DO YOU WANT THE CURRENT L/D TOPIC?

You want the L/D topic and NFL wants you to have it, but -

The Problem

NFL is unable to handle the large number of tele-calls requesting the L/D topic every two months.

One call from each of NFL's 2600 plus schools would be difficult, without the additional calls from Several students from the same school on the same day.

Teachers and students from Non-NFL schools.

Handbook publishers who do not advertise in the Rostrum.

People who have received their Rostrum but would rather call than read.

Collect, "emergency" calls demanding the topic!

Because the national office is small, hard working and understaffed, we can't handle the flood of calls at our busiest times. Yet everyone wants the topic on the date of release, so -

The Solution

The L/D topic will always appear on the banner page of the Rostrum, the official voice of NFL.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL answering machine. Call (920) 748-LD4U (748-5348). Call anytime 24 hours a day for the recorded topic.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL Website at Debate Central:

<http://debate.uvm.edu/nfl.html>

or

the NFL Online Point System
www.nflonline.org

Remember

You can always get the topic by answering machine, computer modem, the Rostrum or the Web. So good debating - and thanks for your understanding.

DEBATE IN BELARUS OR AZERBAIJAN

Five schools sought for a State Department funded exchange between AMERICAN high schools and high schools in AZERBAIJAN AND BELARUS

The aim of this project is to create new and lasting relationships between educators, students and communities in Azerbaijan, Belarus, and the United States. This will be a unique opportunity to be part of a collaborative international partnership. The theme of the program is debate, hinged on issues relevant to civil and open societies. The partnership will involve a collaborative on-line research effort between schools, the creation of curriculum material and debates between bi-national teams in each participating country. Partnerships are expected to reach beyond the school and link whole communities together – one expectation is that debates will be held in a public venue and will be open to the community. It is hoped that this project will create long lasting partnerships.

- This program will run from October 2002-December 2003;
- In total there will be 5 schools selected: 2 will partner with Belarussian schools and 3 with Azeri schools;
- Each travelling delegation will contain a minimum of 5 students and 2 educators;
- Each delegation will visit their partner school for a minimum of 3 weeks during the school year;
- All communication and debates will take place in English;
- A strong commitment from school administrators will be needed to carry out this multi-year project.

THE DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS IS SEPTEMBER 30, 2002.

There's no debate about it. Nurturing a young mind is one of the most important things you'll ever do. Teaching a child to think. To ask questions. To delight in learning. That's why Lincoln Financial Group is a proud sponsor of the National Forensic League, A&E's BIOGRAPHY® Project for Schools, and other educational programs for kids. After all, if there's one thing we've learned as a leading financial services company, there are no smarter investments than the ones you make in young people.
