When Johnny Carson appeared on his last NBC Tonight Show he thanked the audience for allowing him to be a guest in their homes all those years. I now know how Johnny felt.

It has been my great privilege to serve as your Executive Secretary for the last seventeen years.

During that time, working together, you and I have made significant progress for NFL.

NFL is online: points may be recorded, members enrolled, news and topics disseminated and merchandise purchased over the internet. Online dues payment, district point recording and national entry are in the near future.

The Rostrum has been improved: useful articles for teachers and students, NFL news, national tournament information and valuable advertising has been packaged in an attractive format for your use - and is now online as well as in print.

The National Tournament has been expanded: new contests, Duo Interp, Storytelling and Ted Turner Debate, have debuted. The number of student qualifiers has tripled since 1986. Supplemental and Consolation events have been enhanced. Exciting events have been featured and celebrities have appeared

Significant scholarships are offered: In 1986 only $2400 in scholarships were given; in 2003 over $120,000 were awarded!

Competitive fairness is guaranteed: the "unknown" student from the smallest school is treated exactly the same way as a student from a large school or a student coached by a famous coach.

A sound financial base has been established: Our wonderful national sponsor Lincoln Financial Group has provided the key resources to allow NFL to conduct a premier national tournament, conduct outreach to rural and urban schools, build an internet presence, provide meaningful scholarships and support coach education. Lincoln, and earlier Phillips Petroleum, have provided the critical support needed for operation and expansion of NFL activities for students.

We should continually thank NFL sponsors: The Stennis Center supports Congress; PER, ASPA, the Patrick Henry Auxiliary and Western Kentucky University provide support for individual events. The Kaiser Family Foundation (Barbara Jordan) and Lincoln Financial Group (Lin-

The Schwan Food Company sponsors contests - Duo and IX - as well as Schools of Excellence, Coach awards and parties and events which create memories.

NFL teaching materials are provided: the "Bradley" tapes, loaned free - allow the "humblest student" to learn from the "greatest teachers" on video (and now online). Interp final round videos - loaned free - allow thousands of young student actors to learn from the best performances.

NFL has pioneered outreach: the "Power of Speech Video", now in its second edition featuring Oprah Winfrey, produced by our sponsor Lincoln Financial Group, has encouraged hundreds of schools to add a speech program -- and saved the program at many others.

President Harry Truman was asked the first thing he would do when he left the White House to return to Missouri. He answered "I'll take the suitcases up to the attic"! He realized that you do all you can for as long as you can - and then it is over!

Thank-you for letting me serve you and your students for the last seventeen years.

It has truly been an honor.

Lincoln My NFL experience... I Have a Dream!

Financial Group® By Krista Hoyos, Lincoln Financial Group, Sales Solutions Intern

The Lincoln Financial Group®/National Forensic League National Speech Tournament was held at Georgia State University in Atlanta, Georgia June 15 - 21. The final rounds of competition were held at the historic Ebenezer Baptist Church where Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was the assistant pastor and is also buried right outside the church.

"Dr. King was 19 when he became a pastor... he had a plan, a vision, a strategy and a dream," said Garry Spence, Vice President of Lincoln Financial Group.

The students who competed throughout the week also had a plan, vision, strategy and a dream.

More than 2,650 students qualified from 854 schools across the nation. Their goal was the same - to walk away as a 2003 NFL National Champion.

Many students didn't walk away fulfilling their dream of being a national champion but all were winners by simply qualifying to attend nationals. As Sierra Lovett of Colorado put it (after finding out she was eliminated), "It's so exciting just to be here! There are so many opportunities...Lincoln Financial is giving away free stuff left and right. Even after you are eliminated, there are consolation rounds."

With this generation of teenagers, so much is based upon peer pressure and fitting in. It is amazing to see these students get up on stage, in front of their peers, and perform and speak as well as they do.

This was my first NFL experience. My expectations before I came were from my own experience of debate in high school. When I left the finals Friday, June 21, I was blown away by the performances I watched.

I had the opportunity to observe final rounds of Humorous and Duo Interpretation. It was like watching mini-movies, one right after another. These students, within minutes, would make me laugh hysterically or give me goose bumps and chills.

They're a very talented bunch, or as Jim Copeland, National Secretary and Tournament Director, said "They're the finest people on earth."

The talent of the students was not the only thing I noticed. The coaches', family members' and teammates' love and support played a huge part in why these student have made it as far as they did. The effort these coaches put forth would make any one want to succeed.

This was a great experience for everyone involved. I encourage you to someday watch an NFL Tournament; it is an experience a person will never forget. These students are the faces of our future.

A Second Chance to Qualify for Nationals Results in 1st and 5th Place Wins

By Krista Hoyos, Lincoln Financial Group, Sales Solutions Intern

If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again. We all have heard this many times growing up, and it's a piece of advice that paid off for two young ladies.

Julia Cain and Deena Shakir were the winners of the 2003 Lincoln Financial Group Scholarship Video Speech Contest. Cain placed first winning a $2,000 scholarship and second place Shakir was awarded a $1,000 scholarship. They also automatically qualified to compete at the Lincoln Financial Group®/National Forensic League National Speech Tournament.

Cain comes from Milton Academy, Milton, MA. She is a senior and co-captain of her team. She qualified for Nationals in 2002; however, she didn't qualify this year. Her coach, Jenny McNeil, told her about the contest and urged her to enter.

"I had no idea if I was doing the right thing," said Cain. They filmed the speech in one afternoon and sent it in. A month later, Cain received a call from a Lincoln representative notifying her of her winnings and a bid to Nationals.

Cain admits, "I didn't expect to win...it was fun and exciting because I'm a senior and this is my last NFI competition." She usually competes in Original Oratory, but winning the contest automatically qualified her for Expository.

At Nationals, Cain advanced to the final rounds, and gave her expository speech at the historic Ebenezer Baptist Church where Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. served as assistant pastor. Coach McNeil kept Cain's competitive spirits high by saying, "This is where Martin Luther King spoke so you must do good."

And she did - she won the title of National Champion in Expository Speaking. "It was nice to win my last tournament," said Cain. Cain walked away with two first place finishes, the 2003 Lincoln Financial Group Scholarship Video Speech Contest and the Expository Speaking National Champion. In addition, she made a new friend in Deena Shakir.

Shakir is a junior at Leland High School, San Jose, CA. Like Cain, Shakir didn't qualify for finals this year. Her coach, Gay Brasher, told her about the video speech contest two days before the submission deadline and in the middle of finals' week.

"I didn't want to pass up the opportunity," said Shakir. So she researched, wrote, and filmed her speech in one day. Again, one month later, she received the good news. "This is a huge personal achievement," said Shakir. She took her speech to the final round of Expository Speaking.

"This is a great experience. I'm very thankful to Lincoln Financial Group. This contest provides a second chance for everyone. I'm definitely entering the contest again next year," said Shakir.

NFL Secretary and tournament director James Copeland added, "This was a wonderful way of having a second chance at finals."

People are always getting second opinions if they don't like their diagnoses by a doctor, or getting extra credit from a teacher if they don't like their grade on a certain test. Why not a second chance to be apart of the NFL Nationals?

"Lincoln has gone the full mile to create an excellent contest for every student to win. Coaches owe it to their students to give them every opportunity to make it to finals, and students owe it to themselves. Julia and Deena proved that lightning can strike at anytime," said Copeland.

Eligible scholarship winners had to be present to win.

This year, five $1,000 scholarships were presented by the Lincoln Financial Group, to celebrate participation in NFL activities. Five students were selected at random from all national tournament participants – except the winners – to represent the over 90,000 students nationwide who participated this year in NFL.

Victory Briefs is a California-based company devoted to the improvement of forensics education across the country and the assistance of speech/debate educators. A collaboration of ex-Champions and coaches at all levels of competition, we are dedicated to improving the quality of all forensics, with a special focus on policy debate, LD debate, and extemporaneous speaking. Victory Briefs provides instructional materials, runs a nationwide scholarship tournament, and offers a summer institute in California. If you aren't already familiar with what we are about, ask around, and we hope to get to know you.

"... Victory Briefs provides a depth of analysis unmatched by any other debate publication, yet are written in a simple and logical manner that can be useful to everyone from the beginning novice to the advanced varsity debater. The writers are experienced debaters themselves who know that the true essence of debate does not lie in an attempt to provide all the answers, but more importantly to ask questions which stimulate further investigation of the resolution. ..." Matt Gregoline, 2000 IN State Champion

"... Our Lincoln-Douglas debaters can hardly wait for each installment of the Victory Briefs. They use the authors' insights to help clarify their thinking. Our success is because we are using the Victory Briefs. ..." Steve Gargo, Appleton West H.S., WI

"... From quoting Victor in the final round competition at Nationals in 1990 to buying them for our novices in summer camp, our debaters have always considered Victory Briefs the best. We missed them when they went out of print and rejoiced when they came back better than ever. ..." Carol Biel, Chesterton H.S., IN

"... Victory Briefs is truly the best evidence deal out there. Their analysis is top notch from novice to nationals competitor. Case writing, raw ideas, these guys have got it all. This is one of the few briefs I bother with before my team gets it. ..." Mr. Carcerano, Andress H.S., TX

"... Victory Briefs are a great addition to our team's research and topic analysis. They map out the main issues of the resolution and provide a wide range of evidence for both sides, from many points of view. We especially appreciate that each brief is constructed from scratch - you don't get 'rehashed' cards from past resolutions or generic arguments, but cogent, thoughtful analysis. ..." -- Carol Hamilton, Carey Academy, NC

"... My kids love the books and briefs. ... Thank you for all your help. ..." Anita Boyd, R.H. Watkins H.S., MS

"... These books are not mere cheat sheets. They provide evidence in the context of its analysis. They are an excellent educational resource. ..." Judith McMasters, Bishop Kelley H.S., OK

"... The analysis from past and present champions are of the highest quality. ... Even before debating, my students have a good idea of what the arguments mean. ... I'm very impressed, as is my team, with the quality. Keep it up! ..." Mitch Gentry, West Bakersfield H.S., CA

policy focus: oceans

The 2003-2004 policy topic is Resolved: that the United States federal government should establish an ocean policy substantially increasing protection of marine natural resources. Get a jump on the competition and start your preparation with these books (available in June). The Victory Briefs policy staff includes nationally renowned college debaters and coaches: Eddie Alm, Thad Blank, Ben Coulter, Chris MacFarlane, Melinda McVey, Jason Peterson, Shawn Powers, Eli Rosenbaum, Justin Skarb, Marissa Silber, James Thomas, Nate Tribble, Corey Turoff, and Daniel Wolnerman.

Policy Case Areas - Book 1

Victory Briefs' 300-page+ case area books explore several areas in depth, including case analysis, IAC, extension evidence, and negative responses/evidence. These books are helpful to introduce you to the literature on the topic, and give you ideas for cases and how to respond to specific cases. In Book 1, Victory Briefs explores the Law of the Seas, the South China Seas, US Military Submarine Policy, Ocean Thermal Energy Conversion, and Low Frequency Sonar Radars.

"... The Law of the Seas provides for the first time a universal framework for the rational management of marine resources and their conservation for future generations. ... According to the U.S. Marine Mammal Commission, "if the LFA sonar system is made widely available for worldwide employment as proposed, all species and populations of marine mammals could possibly be affected. ..."

Policy Case Areas - Book 2

In Book 2, Victory Briefs explores Marine Reserves, Over-Fishing, Oil Spills, Waste Dumping, and Indigenous Rights.

"... Results from long-term studies following the spills have surprised us, scientists reported recently. Oil is 100 times more toxic to developing fish than previously thought. ... The oceans of the world continue to suffer from the philosophy of the commons. ..."

Negative Positions - Book 1

In this book, Victory Briefs explores several key negative strategies, including counterplans (Japan and States), disadvantages (Japan, Federalism, Economy, Environmental Movements), topicality, and comprehensive politics links.

Negative Positions - Book 2

This book focuses on the more important kritiks, including capitalism, ecofeminism, anthropocentrism, and spanos.

"... Anthropocentrism does not allow humans to bridge the artificial gap that it creates. It leaves humans fragmented or alienated from much of their environment. We see the disastrous consequences on the earth's ecology, causing the disintegration of health and harmony for all, including human life. ..."

Victory Briefs presents ...

... a brand new product line...

... for students, teachers, and enthusiasts of debate ...

The Victory Briefs DVD Library

Starting with the 2003-2004 September-October Lincoln-Douglas debate topic, Victory Briefs will be producing and releasing instructional DVDs (approximately 1 hour in length) to discuss and demonstrate a debate on each new topic. There is no better way to start the educational discourse on the topic than a high-quality, well-researched, persuasive demonstration debate. Each DVD begins with a short introduction to the topic by one of the top forensics coaches we have on staff, continues with a full debate on the topic by some of the top ex-debaters in the country, and concludes with a summary and analysis by the coach. The product is designed for individual use (for those who do not have a coach), or for classroom use (to jump start the new topic).

Why VB-DVD?

- Inspire. It is one thing to tell a student how they should debate. It is quite another to show that student how it is done. Demonstration debates are generally considered the most effective way to teach not only the basics of debate, but to teach advanced students how to reach even greater heights.
- Be Timely. There are many debate video products on the market, but most of them concern outdated resolutions or do not incorporate the latest thinking on how best to teach debate. Students invariably are more interested in learning if they think what they are watching will have a direct, and immediate, usefulness to them. These DVD products are released within days after each new topic is announced, and so you cannot purchase a more timely and relevant product for students.
- Learn From the Best. The benefit of a Victory Briefs product is that it can draw upon our network of debaters and teachers—the proven best of the best—all of whom are dedicated to giving back to the activity and seeing its continued growth in the future. Our demonstration debates are performed by our staff, and so you can expect each DVD to be a true “clash of the titans.” Where else can you see the 2003 TOC Champion battle the 2000 TOC Champion, the 2000 NFL Champion battle the 2002 NFL Champion, or the Texas State Champion debate the Washington State Champion. Because our staff is from all across the nation, our DVDs will not be biased to any particular style or region.
- Educate. Our DVD products are ultimately designed to educate future generations of debaters and to instill the correct values we at Victory Briefs believe are essential for the future improvement of our activity. Thus, we emphasize communication, strategic thinking, clear analysis, and depth of reasoning. In short, we have extensive quality control in the production process to ensure that the DVDs reflect what debate education should be about.

KUBISCH INTERNATIONAL BOWL

Ambassador Jack Kubisch contributed $500 to endow a special award to the contestant who wins the final round of International Extemporaneous Speaking at Nationals.

The Kubisch International Bowl, a silver engraved, footed bowl is presented to the student who, in the opinion of all final round judges, won the final round of International Extemp.

Ambassador Kubisch's idea was that the final round was like no other; a large audience, the very best contestants, cross examination, nine judges; and its winner should be honored with a special award.

NFL thanks Ambassador Jack Kubisch for originating the idea and his generous support of this award. This year, the winner was Daniel Hemel from Scarsdale High School (NY), coached by Joseph Vaughan.

The award was presented by Michael Morris, 1966 National Champion in Boys Extemp.

THE PROFESSOR'S PLATE

The winning student of the final round of United States Extemporaneous speaking, as reflected by counting every one of the nine final round judges, was presented the Professor's Plate in honor of Professor Paul Lorentzen, a longtime board member of the Public Employees Roundtable. The Professor, himself, a strong supporter of NFL, presented the plate to Logan Scisco from Danville High School (KY), coached by Steve Meadows, 2003 final round winner.

Winner Logan Scisco of Danville HS, KY

Winner Lydia Nelson of Sacred Heart HS, MA

JAMES ELSON AWARD BOWL

Dr. Jon Kukla, the new Patrick Henry Memorial Foundation Executive Vice President - CEO, and the board members of the Patrick Henry Memorial at Red Hill, wished to commemorate the years of outstanding service given to the Foundation by retiring Executive Vice President - CEO James Elson, a renown authority on Patrick Henry and on the art of Oratory.

The Elson Award Bowl, engraved with a likeness of Patrick Henry and the NFL Seal, was presented to Lydia Nelson of Sacred Heart High School (MA), coached by Mark J. McNeil, who won the 2003 final round of Patrick Henry Original Oratory.

DO YOU WANT THE CURRENT L/D TOPIC?

You want the L/D topic and NFL wants you to have it, but

The Problem

NFL is unable to handle the large number of telephone callers requesting the L/D topic every two months.

One call from each of NFL's 2600 plus schools would be difficult, without the additional calls from

-  Several students from the same school on the same day.
-  Teachers and students from Non-NFL schools.
-  Handbook publishers who do not advertise in the Rostrum.
-  People who have received their Rostrum but would rather call than read.
-  Collect, "emergency" calls demanding the topic!

Because the national office is small, hard working and understaffed, we can't handle the flood of calls at our busiest times. Yet everyone wants the topic on the date of release, so--

The Solution

The L/D topic will always appear on the banner page of the Rostrum, the official voice of NFL. Rostrum available on the NFL Website at: www.nflonline.org (see "Rostrum online").

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL answering machine. Call (920) 748-LD4U (748-5348). Call anytime 24 hours a day for the recorded topic.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL Website at:

www.nflonline.org

on the Debate Central Website:
<http://debate.uvm.edu/nfl.html>

Remember

You can always get the topic by answering machine, the Rostrum or the Web. So good debating -- and thanks for your understanding.

SPEECH PRESENTED AT NATIONALS

by
Fritz Klein who portrayed Abraham Lincoln

Ladies and gentlemen, my friends and fellow citizens:

It is with great respect and honor that I appear in this house of worship today, not only because of the great God Who is here revered and worshipped, but because of the hallowed and historic significance of this place.

I am not much of a hand to quote scripture, but I know that the Bible says somewhere that, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver."

Many such words have, undoubtedly been spoken in this chamber. And much might be said about them. But there was another such word, fitly spoken, many years before, which grew from the same root, and which was meant to become an apple of gold to us all. That word is found in our charter of liberty and reads:

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed..

I love the sentiments of those historic men. This was their majestic interpretation of the economy of the Universe. This was their lofty, and wise, and noble understanding of the justice of the Creator to His creatures. Yes..to all His creatures, to the whole great family of man. In their enlightened belief, nothing stamped with the Divine image and likeness was sent into the world to be trodden on, and degraded, and brutalized by its fellows. They grasped not only the whole race of man then living, but they reached forward and seized upon the farthest posterity. They erected a beacon to guide their children and their children's children, and the countless myriads who should inhabit the earth in other ages. Wise statesmen as they were, they knew the tendency of prosperity to breed tyrants, and so they established these great self-evident truths, that when in the distant future some man, some faction, some interest, should set up the doctrine that none but rich men, or none but white men, were entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, their posterity might look up again to the Declaration of Independence and take courage to renew the battle which their fathers began—so that truth, and justice, and mercy, and all the humane and Christian virtues might not be extinguished from the land; so that no man would hereafter dare to limit and circumscribe the great principles on which the temple of liberty was being built.

We have witnessed a gigantic rebellion designed to overthrow that principle and to stop its ameliorating effect upon our lives, and those of future generations.

An attempt...[was]...made to construct a new nation upon the basis of, and with the primary and fundamental object to maintain, enlarge, and perpetuate human slavery...

No such embryo state should [have] ever be[en] recognized by, or admitted into, the family of Christian and civilized nations; and...all Christian and civilized men everywhere should, by all lawful means, resist to the utmost, such recognition. And so we have.

That same resistance was effected here, in this place. This place has become like a beacon, dedicated to the memory of those who fought in that same struggle and here have thus far so nobly advanced it. Some have died, dedicated to that struggle, and we hallow their memory.

From these honored dead, let us take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last, full, measure of devotion - that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain - that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom - and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
